PUPILS TO GIVE YULE PROGRAMS AND HELP POOR

Englewood High School to Give Oak Forest Inmates Gifts

Schools of the vicinity will observe Christmas this week with trees, entertainments and charitable activities. The inmates of Oak Forest infirmary will receive a truck load of gifts collected at Englewood high school, 6520 Stewart ave., under the direction of Miss Josephine Allin, dean of girls. Aprons, gloves, fruit, candy and other presents will be sent Friday.

A Christmas tree will be trimmed at the institution by twenty-five pupils accompanied by Mrs. Myra Mackey of the faculty, the day before Christmas. The Girls' Reserve will entertain the patients Tuesday and a play will be presented under the direction of Miss Edith Hardy on that date. The orchestra and band will give a concert after Christmas at Oak Forest.

Pupils of the Haines practice school, 231 W. 23rd pl., will be visited Friday by Santa Claus, represented by a Parker high school student who will distribute presents given by his fellow scholars. Fifteen machines of pupils will go with him. Baskets will be packed for poor families by Parker high school girls and boys. The Parker junior high school will collect food for the needy through its Lend-a-Hand club.

Parties by small groups will be held this week at Flower technical high school, 6100 Wabash ave. Division rooms have charge of the entertainments, one of which was held this afternoon, Wednesday, while two others will be given Thursday and Friday afternoons. Charles Isaacson of the Chicago Civic Opera company talked at an assembly at the school today, Wednesday. Last Thursday morning one of Miss Maude O. Post's English classes presented characters from David Copperfield, appearing in costume. Another English class made up the audience and guessed the names of the characters from their study of the novel.

Carols at Beale

Primary and kindergarten pupils of the Beale school, 6043 Sangamon st., will march through the rooms singing Christmas songs Friday afternoon. The lower grades will have Christmas trees.

Candy canes will be presented to each child in the Bass school, 6554 May st., by the parent-teachers' association. The organization will attend the program to be given at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon comprising the most interesting numbers of those given during the day by four sections of pupils.

Lack of space in the assembly hall will make it necessary to start the program at 9:15 o'clock to give the various groups an opportunity to present their selections. There will be a large Christmas tree in the auditorium and another in the kindergarten room.

Musical numbers are being arranged by Mrs. Carl Wafer and Miss Nellie Gruber. The program is in charge of Miss Elizabeth Perry, assistant to the principal, Mrs. Bessie Williams and Miss Catherine Compher. Room parties will take place Friday afternoon.

Tree and Programs

Christmas cards printed by eighth grade pupils are being sold in the neighborhood of the Copernicus school, 6010 Throop st., for the school fund, which pays for the materials used. Annually the children sell 1,000.

"Little Pine Tree's Christmas" will be presented by the lower grade pupils Friday for the middle and upper grades. The lower grades' orchestra will play. The three divisions will have programs in the assembly hall, where a large fir tree has been placed. Special solo and chorus vocal numbers have been arranged. The kindergarten will entertain the Mothers' circle Thursday afternoon with songs and recitations. The Copernicus pupils will pack baskets for the poor.

A joint Christmas program will be given at the Dewey school, 5415 Union ave., Wednesday evening by the parent-teacher association and the pupils. Christmas carols will be sung. A feature of the program will be dancing numbers. There will be a Christmas tree. Later in the week children will pack and distribute baskets to families of pupils who lack a Christmas dinner.

Sketches will be presented by several of the grades of the Kershaw school Thursday. They will give "Piccola's Christmas" and "Christmas Secrets." Assemblies will be held for the lower grades at 2:15 o'clock and for the more advanced rooms at 2:45 o'clock. The school will have a Christmas tree and teachers will contribute a basket for a needy family. Rooms will hold Christmas parties Friday.

Rhythm Band to Play

"Esther's Dream" will be presented at 9 o'clock Friday morning by pupils of the Lewis-Champlin school.

JOHNNY, your newsboy, wants to get his work done in time to enjoy a Merry Christmas and yet give the Economist a chance to wish you one before the holiday is over. Therefore, all departments of the Foster & McDonnell plant are rushing things a bit this week. All news copy for Central Edition must be in no later than Monday evening. We are featuring Christmas entertainments and social events. Let us hear of yours.

Contest Stories Must be in Midnight Thursday

Don't let procrastination prove your Waterloo, all you story writers of the south side!

Thursday at midnight, December 18, is the very latest date when manuscripts will be entered in the Economist's Christmas Short Story Contest in which the three best stories will receive prizes of $50, $15, and $10.

Don't trust too much to Uncle Sam. If your story isn't in the mail now, best not consign it to Christmas rush that the postoffice finds itself facing. Better bring it in person to the Southtown Economist office, 728 W. 65th st., and be sure that it reaches the contest editor in time.

The judges, Howard Mumford Jones, chairman of the department of comparative literature at the University of Texas, who is now associated with the University of Chicago as an exchange professor, Miss Louie Deupree, instructor in English at the Chicago Normal college, and Mrs. J. J. Barclay of Morgan Park, will read the manuscripts Friday and Saturday and prize winners will be announced in the Christmas issue. The first prize story will be published in the Economist, and will go "on the air" from WBCN, the Economist's new broadcasting station.

For the benefit of those who have written stories and may have misplaced previous issues containing them, the rules are reprinted here:

1. The story must relate to Christmas.

2. Stories may not be over 3,000 words in length and must be typewritten on one side of the paper only. If the author wishes his manuscript returned he must accompany it with a self-addressed envelope and sufficient postage to cover mailing charges.

3. All manuscripts must be in before midnight, Thursday, December 18. They may be mailed to "Christmas Story Contest Editor, Southtown Economist, 728 W. 65th st.," or brought in person to the Economist office.

4. Name of the writer must not be on manuscript, but must be placed, together with address and telephone number, in a sealed envelope which must accompany the story. Story and envelope are to be numbered, and envelopes will not be opened until after judges have reached their decision.

5. The Economist is to have all publication rights to the three prize-winning stories.

6. The contest is open to any resident of Chicago's south side or student in a south side school.

NO COMMUNISM FOR U. S. BUT SHOULD FIGHT AGAINST WORLD WAR

COLONEL SMITH, 5 YEARS IN BOLSHEVIK ARMY, PAINTS PICTURE OF RUSSIA CONDITIONS

"There is no possibility of a communistic regime in America," declared Col. Charles Smith, for five years a British spy in Bolshevik Russia, enlisted in the Bolshevik army, in a vivid talk on "Communism as It Is" before the Englewood Business Men's association Thursday. "The danger is international. As long as one sixth of the world's surface is ruled by communists, a world war is inevitable. Force is the only power that the communist recognizes and communism today, as in 1917, has but one end—world revolution at any cost.

"If there is an uprising anywhere in the world today you will find that communism has its finger in the pie. There is no secret service so strong as that of Russia. While fifty million Russians owe their salvation from starvation to American food, the Third International is sending here propagandists with the purpose of overthrowing this government."

Colonel Smith declared that there are 365 publications in the United States today working for communism, and that he expected to be able to prove before long his contention that many of the bank robberies taking place today over the country are the work of those who are seeking funds to continue communistic propaganda. He cited the case of the Kansas City robber who made a speech to the effect that he only robbed the rich to help the poor.

"Russia has no money to feed her starving children," he said, "but resources behind the Third International for propaganda purposes are unlimited," he declared.

"And you must understand what communism is! It means the destruction of the rights of property and the rights of the individual, and the abolition of religion and marriage."

Russia is 95 per cent anti-communistic, Colonel Smith claimed, and gave as reasons why 600,000 families can keep a people of 150 million in subjection the ignorance of the nation, inaccessability of sections to neighboring regions, and the fatalism of the Oriental mind. He maintained that recognition by the United States of the Russian government would be a grave mistake, "for as long as the United States does not recognize the Third International it is bound to fail."

He painted a picture of hundreds of thousands of starving and diseased women and children in Russia under the rule of the Third International and said that the U. S. senatorial commission saw only such scenes as had been prepared for their eyes.

The association will have no more luncheon meetings until January 8 when it is expected to have Judge K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, as the speaker.

BUILDING FIRE WITH OIL, ONE DEAD, 4 HURT

Kerosene Explodes When Poured on Ashes; Children Are Rescued

Explosion of a can of kerosene used in an attempt to enliven a dying fire caused the death of Kelly Spaulding and serious burns to his wife, two children and a roomer in their flat at 1054 W. 63rd st., early Monday morning.

Spaulding arose shortly before 6 o'clock to build the fire in the kitchen range. The blaze had almost died out and before putting on fresh coals Spaulding poured kerosene on the ashes. The oil exploded, ignited Spaulding's clothes and flew on the bedclothes of two children, James, 7, and Marie, 5, who were sleeping near the range.

Earl Cannico, 21 years old, a roomer with the Spuldings, ran into the kitchen and attempted to care for the children. The wife, Mrs. Ruby Spaulding, dropped her 14-months-old baby, Peggy, out of the window to the arms of Clifford Reed, who stood by a second story window. Her efforts to save her other children from the flames futile, she then jumped to the roof of a nearby building.

She escaped with slight injuries but her husband was so severely burned that he died within an hour. Cannico and the two children that were trapped underneath the flaming bedclothes were seriously burned, but it is expected that they will recover.

Members of Engine company No. 64, who answered the alarm turned in by neighbors, extinguished the fire and with the aid of the Englewood police, removed the injured to St. Bernard's hospital. The fire was confined to the kitchen of the house and caused little monetary loss.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC AT ENGLEWOOD M. E.

Christmas music will feature both services next Sunday at the Englewood First Methodist church, 64th st. and Stewart ave. At the morning service the choir will sing "Joyful Morn," by Prothero, and Miss Arvesta Parrish will sing, "Jesu Bambino," by Yon.

In the evening at 7:45 the choir will render "King of Kings," an entirely new cantata by Daniel Prothero. This work has but recently been issued and will be heard in Englewood for the first time next Sunday. Part one tells of "The Promise of the King"; part two of the "Coming of the King,"; part three depicts "The Adoration," and the whole comprises a work of great merit.

Soloists will be Miss Laura Turner, soprano; Miss Arvesta Parrish, contralto; J. W. McAllister, tenor, and George Gordon, baritone. Charles W. Leigh will direct, and Miss Emily Roberts will preside at the organ.

LOSES $109, CHASES FINDER, IT'S RETURNED

Finder wasn't keeper in this case and honesty on the one hand, and speed on the other, aided William Eckholm, truck driver for the Chicago Daily Tribune, to recover $109 he dropped in the 63rd and Halsted elevated station Tuesday morning.

Eckholm, who has delivered papers in the south district for many years, missed the bills and returned to the station, where he had just delivered papers.

Mrs. Lee, the morning attendant at the news stand, remembered having seen a woman stoop and pick something from the floor as she was hastening out to board an interurban train. She gave a careful description of the woman. Eckholm raced his truck down Halsted, and when he overtook the car the conductor gave him permission to go through it. The woman was recognized from the description, and returned the money to the driver after he identified it.

MAIL PACKAGES WITH CARE, SAYS BOSWORTH

"Wrap your packages securely; address your mail plainly; write your return address on all mail; and bring your parcels to the post office to have them properly weighed so that you can be sure they contain sufficient postage," Superintendent Bosworth of the Englewood Post Office warns his patrons.

He also cautions them about mailing early because there will be practically no mail delivery on Christmas day.

The Christmas rush started in this post office only Monday, but the mail has been noticeably heavier for some time past. Foreign letters and packages have been coming in throughout the past week. The majority of them from the Englewood district are sent to Germany and Great Britain. Most of the money orders sent out are for people in Ireland, Germany, and the Scandinavian countries.

SELL 63RD ST. LAND AT $2,480 PER FOOT

Sale of 127 feet on 63rd st., property at Nos. 721 to 733, was reported last week for a sum of $315,000, an average of $2,480 a front foot. Nate J. Sugar was the buyer and Irving Isador, the seller. The property is improved with a one-story and a two-story building.

The building containing three stores, three flats and two offices at the southwest corner of Morgan and 63rd sts. has been sold for $56,000 to D. A. Cohan and Dr. John Ostro.

ATTEMPT MADE TO EXTORT $5,000 FROM ENGLEWOOD RESIDENT

HERMAN GOETZKE, COAL MERCHANT, RECEIVES THREATENING LETTER

Attempts to extort $5,000 from Herman Goetzke, 6349 Aberdeen st., are being investigated by attaches of the state's attorney's office.

Goetzke, who is reputed to be wealthy, received the first threatening letter by mail Friday. It was apparently written by a well educated person. It intimated that Goetzke was worth $75,000 and that unless he was willing to give up $5,000 harm would come to him or his family. However, the letter gave no indication of how the money should be turned over to the writers.

Saturday night George Clausen, 6130 Morgan st., received a telephone call. The person calling asked Clausen whether or not he knew the Goetzkes, who conduct a small coal business. When he answered that he did he was told that a package had been delivered to 116 W. 59th st. from the Fair store and that the caller's package had gone to Goetzke. Clausen was directed to inform his neighbor of this and have him bring the package he received to the 59th st. address.

When informed of the message Goetzke could not understand its meaning since he never purchased anything in loop stores. Later, however, he realized that it was the extortionists at work again. Together with two officers of the Englewood station and his son, Goetzke went to the 59th st. address, carrying with him a milk bottle wrapped up as the "package." Goetzke went to the house alone while the officers and his son watched from the distance.

Goetzke received no answer to his knocks on the door and found nothing in the hallway. He rejoined the officers and when he went back again he found a lantern in the hallway. The lantern was wrapped up and in the package a letter was found directing him to board a northbound "L" train at the nearest station, ride north on the rear platform until he heard a strange noise and then throw off the money.

Goetzke did not follow the second instructions but notified Assistant State's Attorney Gorman. A detective bureau squad sent out arrested four men in a flat at 5845 Wentworth ave., a short distance from the house where Goetzke found the lantern, as suspects. They gave their names as Ralph Urnholtz, 5945 Wentworth ave.; George Barry, who lives a few doors from Goetzke at 6318 Aberdeen st.; Winfield Morgan of Burlington, Ill.; and C. A. Anderson, 421 W. 60th st.

These four were closely questioned but established their innocence and were released. Goetzke has received no further warnings or demands for money.

SOUTH PARK MANOR ASSOCIATION HOLDS OFFICERS' ELECTION

WORK ON SCHOOL AT 78TH, CALUMET TO START SOON, MEMBERS TOLD

A. B. White, 7559 Prairie ave., was elected president of the South Park Manor Improvement association Thursday evening when the organization met at 701 E. 75th st.

With him the following officers will serve: Dr. E. Cadwell, vice president, 7511 Prairie ave.; Charles Gruener, financial secretary, 7553 Prairie ave.; Miss Irene Miller, recording secretary, 303 E. 75th st.; J. G. Rietz, treasurer, 7936 Indiana ave.; M. Mascolino, sergeant-at-arms, 7548 Prairie ave.; directors, Mr. White, Mr. Gruener, Dr. Cadwell, Mr. Rietz, W. C. J. Matthiesen, 7630 South Park ave., N. P. Miller, 303 E. 75th st., E. J. Carroll, 7637 Michigan ave., G. E. Shaffer, 7555 Prairie ave., Mrs. E. J. Wiggins, 7690 Michigan ave.

Promise of a new elementary school building at 78th st. and Calumet ave. has been made to members of the association. Bids are now being solicited and the contract is to be let December 23, Edgar Martin, architect for the Board of Education, stated Friday. Actual construction will probably start early in January, he said.

The building will contain seventeen class rooms, a kindergarten, assembly hall, officers, gymnasium, clinic, woodworking, cooking, sewing locker and shower rooms. Portables now on the school property at 79th st. and Calumet ave. are to be repaired, the improvement club has been assured. Addition of two more such buildings within the near future has also been pledged.

Alderman William Meyering has reported that street lights will be installed in the South Park Manor territory. Until electric lights can be secured, temporary gas lamps are to be erected. The posts for these are now on the ground ready for connection.

Standing committees for the year are as follows: Streets and alleys, police and fire, B. J. Konzen, Mr. Mascolino, Mrs. E. J. Williams; lighting, Mr. Rietz, F. Schulz, Mr. Schaffer; schools, W. Stigall, Mr. Matthiesen, Mrs. L. Bush; entertainment, Dr. Cadwell, Mr. Carroll; membership and publicity, Mr. Gruener, J. Braun, Walter J. Krueger; transportation, Mr. White, Dr. Cadwell, J. J. Bush, George Kiers.

AGED MAN BADLY INJURED BY AUTO

Struck by an automobile as he crossed Halsted st. at 66th st. Friday afternoon, Martin McCormick, 60, 6659 Lowe ave., was taken to St. Bernard's hospital suffering from a fractured skull. William Houston, 6327 Stewart ave., the driver of the car, told the Englewod police that McCormick had stepped from between two machines parked at the curb directly in the path of the oncoming auto. He was not held.

28 'NO LICENSE' BARS CLOSE ON POLICE ORDERS

Collins Answers Critics at Law and Order League Meeting

Twenty-eight soft drink parlors in the Englewood district, which have been operating without licenses, were closed Saturday on orders of Acting Captain William J. Liebecke of the Englewood police station.

Proprietors of these places who have been served with summons daily for their failure to procure permits to operate, have evaded punishment by obtaining repeated continuances on the strength of the statements that they were attempting to obtain mandamuses instructing the city to issue them licenses. They all were summoned to Captain Liebecke's office Friday and warned that they must either close their places of business or "the police would close them."

—Economist Photo

All complied with the drastic ruling. One owner, who has since secured a mandamus, has reopened.

Answering recent criticisms of his crusade against vice and gambling, Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins Friday evening told members of the Englewood Law and Order league that ignoring these crimes to concentrate efforts on elimination of gunmen was the "most damnable policy conceivable." The twin evils, he declared, furnish the breeding places for crime. The territory served by the league is bounded by 79th, 55th, Ashland and State.

"If men are allowed to violate the constitution of the United States, the moral code and the gambling laws, who will determine what laws not to violate and how to enforce any legislation?" he demanded. "The only way to have a clean city of Chicago is to wipe out such places of ill repute and make men go to work and live by honest toil.

"For one year after its adoption the 18th amendment was in a measure lived up to because of fear of conviction by the federal courts," Collins told his audience, which was meeting at the Pilgrim Congregational church, 61th st. and Harvard ave. "When violators discovered they were released, or figuratively 'kissed' out of court, bootlegging as a profitable industry became popular. Six thousand saloons, fifteen breweries and thousands of moonshine stills sprang up. Leo Koretz hardly had a better 'racket' than that of the brewers who sold thousands of barrels of beer every day for $50 a barrel, making a profit of $48 on each. With their enormous funds they were able to corrupt judges and police. The worst type of men in Chicago flocked to the 'racket' that was so lucrative."

3 Convictions, 500 Arrests

The police force, which Collins joined thirty-six years ago last July, now numbers about 5,800 men, including 4,600 patrolmen, forty captains, three deputy superintendents, detectives and officers, he said. During 1909, 1910 and 1911 Collins served as captain of the Englewood station. It was during his two and one-half years at the Chicago ave. station, just prior to his appointment as superintendent of police, that he noted most frequently the lack of co-operation on the part of the courts. During that period his officers made 500 arrests for liquor law violations, which resulted in only three convictions.

"We are now getting much better assistance from the courts," he said. "In spite of the fact that the Illinois statute says a police officer must make an arrest when he witnesses a violation of the law, judges maintain they must have a warrant and throw out cases because of failure to have such papers. The best judges do not agree to that interpretation and the federal courts have given wonderful assistance. During the past year injunctions have been made on 300 places through the district attorney and the federal courts.

Bootlegging Less Lucrative

Speaking of this progress in enforcement of the 18th amendment, Charles W. Vurcell, chief prohibition officer for the district, said that bootlegging has been made hazardous and is no longer so profitable as a year ago.

"As bootlegging becomes less lucrative," he declared, "the job for the police will become bigger. Now that the breweries of Chicago are practically closed and big business in bootlegging is not so profitable, criminals have returned to banditry. The Rondout mail robbery is an example of that. Men who want to make money easily are going out

VESPER SERVICES ARE ADDED TO PROGRAM OF WBCN SUNDAY EVENING

EMERALD AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH TO BROADCAST AT 5:15 O'CLOCK

WBCN'S Sunday programs hereafter are to include one hour of vesper services, from 5:15 to 6:15 o'clock in the evening. Broadcasting to be done direct from the Emerald Avenue Presbyterian church, Emerald ave. and Marquette rd. This feature is to be heard for the first time next Sunday evening and will be a regular thing every Sunday thereafter.

A fifteen-minute talk by the pastor, the Rev. Richard D. Hughes, who, in the last four summers, has lectured before chautauqua audiences totaling 300,000 persons, will be included every Sunday.

Next Sunday, Mr. Hughes will use Christmas as his theme, in keeping with the musical program, which also will have the Yuletide touch. A special quartet, will add greatly to the occasion.

Frances Benson is musical director of the Emerald Avenue Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Alberta Stronach is pianist.

SAFE BLOWERS GET OVER $5,000 FROM INSURANCE FIRMS

BANDITS USE HIGH EXPLOSIVES; PRUDENTIAL LOSES LARGEST PART OF SUM

Safes in Englewood branch offices of two insurance companies were broken open and robbed after closing time Friday night and a total of over $5,000 was stolen. In the office of the John Hancock Insurance company at 6237 Normal ave., the loot amounted to less than $250 but at the office of the Prudential Life Insurance company at 1521 W. 63rd st. nearly $5,000 was taken by the bandits.

Entrance to the Normal ave. office was gained by breaking through a skylight. Here it was apparent that the robbers had used sledge hammers on the safe. The combination was broken off and a door on the inner vault was battered in. Only $50 in cash was obtained here, the rest of the loot being made up of checks and pre-canceled stamps.

Twice before this office has been the scene of a burglary but in previous occasions nothing of value was obtained because the safes were of such construction that the inner door could not be opened. However, the safes had been demolished and when the last replacement of the strong-box was made it was not of the burglar-proof type. B. W. Bassford, the manager, is of the opinion that the job was done by the same gang that attempted to rob the place before, since in the previous times the drawers had been ransacked without avail, while when the robber was discovered Saturday morning nothing had been disturbed except the safe.

According to Mr. Bassford no large sum of money is ever kept in the safe over night, the practice of the company in having the bank make collections at the close of the day's business being resorted to with success in overcoming losses.

The safe was blown in the Prudential office, apparently with a heavy charge of explosive. To deaden the sound the strong box had been wrapped with rugs from the floor and packings stolen from a furniture truck that had been parked in the alley adjacent to the building. The money represented collections and salary for the agents.

Four doors were jimmied by the bandits in entering the place. Finger print experts from the detective bureau made an investigation and from their findings, report that the jobs were done by two different gangs.

I. O. O. F. TO FETE 25TH ANNIVERSARY

On Tuesday evening, December 23, at 8 o'clock Golden Rod Lodge No 59, I. O. O. F., will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary at Boulevard Masonic hall, 5505 Halsted st.

The Golden Glow Rebekah Lodge degree staff will give an exhibition drill. Past Grand Master H. M. Hood will make an address, also present thirteen or fourteen veteran jewels. Everyone is welcome.

$50 AND DIAMOND ARE BANDIT TOLL OF SHARP

Binding their victim, Otto Sharp, 7204 Princeton ave., three bandits late Friday night held him up in his drug store at 61st st. and Normal ave. and robbed him of $50 and a diamond stickpin. They took a quantity of whiskey and dope from the store and made their escape.

TWO "HAULS" ON HALSTED STREET DURING WEEK

Holdup Men Get $1,200 from McCoy; Miller Loses Instrument Stock

Burglars and robbers had another profitable week on Halsted with the holding up of Walter McCoy, president of the Rainbow Ice Cream company Monday morning in the plant at 58th and Halsted Monday morning, and the looting of the Miller Drum shop, on the third floor of 6232 Halsted, Wednesday night of last week of nearly $2,000 worth of musical instruments.

McCoy was relieved of nearly $1,200 by two armed bandits who found him alone in the office of the ice cream factory about 8:30 o'clock in the morning.

He had come in ten minutes before the robbers and had opened the vault. Both of the bandits carried automatic revolvers and, forcing McCoy to hold his hands upraised, commanded him to tell where the money was kept. McCoy directed them to the cash box of the vault which contained about $100 and then to a drawer of the files, where the remainder of the money was hidden.

Not Locked in Vault

On leaving one of the bandits, who appeared to be the leader, directed his accomplice to lock McCoy in the vault. McCoy pleaded with them and finally they compromised by locking the office door. He made his escape within a few minutes by opening a window and jumping ten feet to the alley below. Men at work in the plant first learned of the robbery when they saw their employer leap from the window.

The Englewood police were notified. So far as could be learned the thieves did not use an automobile to make their escape. An attendant at the gasoline station adjacent to the Rainbow plant stated that at the time of the robbery he had noticed two men running toward Halsted st., but, believing they were attempting to catch a car, paid no further attention to the incident. However, he stated that one of the men that he had seen wore a cap, while McCoy's assailants both had fedoras.

McCoy obtained detailed descriptions of the bandits. In reporting to the police he stated that both wore silk gloves in order that no tell-tale finger prints would be left.

Detective bureau squads and flying patrols swept the district, but arrested no suspects.

Choose Strange Loot

"I can't believe the burglary of my place could have been done by regular thieves," said W. C. Miller. "For who would want to try to turn a lot of drums, any one of which I could recognize without any trouble, into cash?"

"I haven't heard of a similar burglary ever. Why, it would take me at least an hour to move the stuff they carried away. I feel it must have been young fellows, possibly desirous of having instruments. I feel sure that some of the stuff at least will be recovered. I'm thoroughly satisfied with the service given me by Acting Capt. William J. Lelbecke of the Englewood police station in making the investigation."

The loot, none of which was insured, included ten new Ludwig drums, ukuleles, $500 worth of violins, five saxophones, cornets, trombones and two banjos, together with their cases. Very little was left in the store. Mr. Miller, who has been in business here for eight or nine years, came in Thursday morning to find a lock had been broken on the door into the hall. The instruments had been carried down the fire escape.

TO ELECT AT FIRST JANUARY MEETING

The question of increasing the dues from $5 a year to $8 a year was discussed by members of the Englewood Commercial and Civic association at their regular meeting and noon luncheon Wednesday noon, December 10, at 336 W. 63rd st.

Since it will be necessary to amend the constitution and by-laws of the association to make such action effective a vote on the question could not be taken until the January meeting.

Frank Porter and Gerald Sullivan reported on the meeting held recently at Hamilton Park when the sewerage problem was discussed.

The next luncheon meeting will be held January 7. There will be an election of officers at this time.

TO LAY PARISH HOUSE CORNERSTONE DEC. 28

The laying of the cornerstone of the parish house of the Park Manor Congregational church, 70th st. and South Park ave., with appropriate ceremonies, will take place at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, December 28.

Harry J. Mapp, president of the Englewood Business Men's association, left early Tuesday morning for Bird's Nest, Va., where he was called by the sudden death of his brother, David Mapp. The funeral is to be held today, Wednesday.

Members of Englewood commandery who were present were its eminent commander, Edward Jarvis, David Donnan, district deputy, Benjamin Wilson, past commander of Englewood commandery; James Lozier, past commander of Englewood; Arthur Waber, past high priest of Normal Park chapter, Walter Brown, quartermaster sergeant of Englewood commandery, and Assistant Sentinel Collie of Englewood commandery.

Theta Phi Gamma Meets

A "rush" meeting of the Theta Phi Gamma was held at the home of Miss Ann Anderson, 6027 Parnell ave., Thursday evening, December 11, for Miss Marie Schwehs. The Christmas party, which will be held at the Ogden park fieldhouse Tuesday evening, December 23, was dismissed. Bunco was played. The winners were Miss Evelyn Pflum, Miss Marie Schwehs, and Mrs. Harold Ahlstadt. The table was prettily decorated with the season's decorations, and a most enjoyable luncheon followed.

Hostess at Bunco

Mrs. E. Beukinga, 6836 Peoria st., entertained a number of guests at bunco on Friday evening.

Dinner and Theater Party

Beta chapter of the Rho Delta Phi sorority held a dinner and theater party on Wednesday evening, December 10. Dinner was served at the Sherman hotel, after which the members saw "No, No, Nanette" at the Harris.

D. of V. Plays Bunco

A bunco party was given Wednesday, December 10, by the Martha Ammen Tent, Daughters of Veterans, at 2 o'clock in the Grand Army hall, 6238 Princeton ave.

The columns of the Economist are for the use of its readers. Personals, social and organization news, church notices, etc., if bearing name, address and phone of sender, will be published free of charge. Copy must reach the office not later than Tuesday noon.

The Southtown Economist is published in three editions. This edition, delivered every Wednesday, carries the news of Englewood, Normal Park, Hamilton Park, Park Manor, Ogden Park and the Garfield district.

Is it not a shameful thing that the fanatics have all the zeal and the wise have none? It is right to be prudent, but one should not be timid. —VOLTAIRE.

Toll of the lawless has again been taken in Englewood. Without referring to the "proofs" of the news matter to be put presently into this week's edition, we call to mind the robbery of the local Prudential insurance company's safe of $5,000; the John Hancock company's smaller loss, also from safe blowing; the burglary of the instruments from the Miller Drum shop; the holdup of Walter McCoy at the Rainbow Ice Cream plant, when bandits obtained $1,200; and a number of smaller holdups. Doubtless we have failed to record all of them. Last week it was a $50,000 jewelry holdup at the local Olsen and Ebann store, and the burglarization of the O'Connor and Goldberg shoe store. On November 22 a $100,000 diamond robbery was perpetrated in the Maremont shop.

WHO IS NEXT?

It has come to be at least a weekly occurrence, and our community newspaper, which rather than strive for sensation seeks to avoid it, finds it a dull day indeed when there is no big robbery or burglary to make a "top head story."

Granted disregard for property rights is only one phase—and doubtless not the most serious one—of the crime situation, still it is the one under present consideration. A thug bent on acquiring that which is not his does not hesitate to use the guns he flourishes and even though a man may value his life more than his riches, it is no positive proof that he will be able to escape with it.

If the responsibility for prevailing conditions does not rest with the police, who has it? Courts and juries may hamper and make more difficult the work of law enforcement by turning criminals loose after they have been arrested and making too easy the securing of bonds. But an ever vigilant local police can keep the criminal element in one particular district on the run; can keep the safe blowers so busy dickering with bondsmen that they don't find time for their habitual pursuits or decide that some other field will offer them more favors and forsake our fair Englewood.

But to get back to the week's news. There is one decidedly encouraging item. You'll find it on the front page. Acting Captain Liebecke, after a week at the Englewood station, has closed twenty-eight licenseless soft-drink parlors, many of which, at least, are meeting points for rowdy gangs and breeding places for vice and crime. We'll try a little more of Lieutenant Liebecke's brand of law enforcement, applied to different phases of our situation. It sounds good.

While the battle still rages among city authorities and heads of the surface lines and elevated roads about the transportation question, with seemingly the problem no nearer solution than it was years ago,

all those interested in that section are demanding the construction of a street car line on 87th st. from Cottage Grove ave. to the Beverly forest preserve. The signers of the petition presented to the Illinois Commerce Commission, which include not only representatives of local business and improvement associations but of the Chicago Board of Education, the Rock Island and the Chicago and Western Indiana railways and the county board, have good reasons for their request.

Ordinances were passed by the city council in 1916 for 1917 construction of the line. There is at present no crosstown line between 79th and 103rd sts., a distance of three miles, although the section has been rapidly developing. Eighty-seventh st. is on both section and township lines, and therefore particularly fitting for a transportation line. A surface line there will directly connect the South Chicago and other districts lying between with the Beverly forest preserve, a delightful and conveniently located picnic ground that has been somewhat inaccessible to east side residents because of the long detours required to reach it. It would make this tract in Cook county's great system of playgrounds much more accessible to Englewood even, since the Western ave. line is difficult to reach and leaves a generous walk at its end before the goal is reached. These and other reasons equally good have been advanced.

But will such an extensive piece of construction (three and one-half miles) be undertaken by the surface lines as long as there is so much uncertainty as to their future? We believe there is little possibility of the purchase of the surface lines property by the city, and have little sympathy with municipal owner-ship of the particular public utility in any event. But negotiations are under way, and the franchise of the lines expires in 1927, before which time there must be some agreement reached.

The plight of the 87th st. people is one more good reason why Chicago must iron out her transportation wrinkles and get started on a constructive and comprehensive building program. The fact that 87th st. and other streets in Southtown have no transportation has retarded progress and the development of vast areas in an incalculable way. We must, as a city, stop hindering our own growth by refusal to give our people methods of getting from place to place.

It is to be hoped that the 87th Street Development association and those others who have co-operated with them will secure action from the Commerce Commission, and that immediately.

Holiday entertainments in vogue at local schools this week recall to many adults the merely amateur presentations of time-worn songs and halting verses delivered from the platform of the old school house.

WHEN TODAY'S CHILD "SPEAKS HIS PIECE"

Modern education has evolved something better. One teacher has described her 1925 operetta as "the direct result of class room work in the music department correlating the folk lore loved by the children with one of the jolliest of annual feasts." She and dozens of school executives like her have given their efforts to establish co-operation between children of different ages and grades for the creation of the unity so essential for strengthening the institution.

Costumes these days may be of cheesecloth and scraps of ribbon as they were in the old regime, but they are carefully assembled by the students themselves as a practical lesson in sewing.

Boys have a chance to expend youthful energy and initiative in the construction of special scenery. The school orchestra is given a chance to make itself known to the public.

Careful thought has been given to Englewood's school programs this year, with a minimum of wasted time and a definite object in view. The Christmas entertainment prepares pupils for civic contacts and encourages poise. It offers an excellent medium for the encouragement of individual talent and deserves the applause of the community. Through WBCN's children's hour radio fans are hearing much childish talent. Doubtless the most important result of the innovation, however, is the interest it creates among the children and the training they derive from facing the invisible audience of the air.

BUMS AND BOOKS

SIR: Old men in summer, sleeping under the stars. Old men in winter, dozing in our library reading rooms. Here one sees them loitering, sheepishly enough, up and down the halls and cold marble stairs, or tracing with a wrinkled finger the map of tropic lands—harbors of warmth and delightful lethargy! Would that Dreiser could write with his tear-stained pen, of those old men who go shuffling down the dark corridor of life, stopping at the dimly lit places like our marble reading rooms, seeking not wisdom, but warmth!

JUDGE PAM TELLS E. B. M. A. BANQUETERS OF COURT'S EVOLUTION

ANNUAL SOCIAL EVENT OF ASSOCIATION HELD AT COOPER-CARLTON

The story of the evolution of the municipal court and its specialized branches was told by Judge Hugo Pam of the superior court at the annual banquet of the Englewood Business Men's association, which was held Wednesday evening, December 10, at 6:30 o'clock in the Cooper-Carlton hotel.

The judge credits Chicago with the initiation and development of a specialized boys' court, which has been the pattern for similar courts in every state in the Union. He cited cases which showed the contrast between conditions before the courts were established and after their formation. He mentioned cases existing in which boy first offenders were thrown into contact with hardened criminals in cities where such courts did not exist.

Judge Pam is in favor of the establishment of a new county jail and court house. He suggests building on the Bridewell site.

The diners were entertained by the Columbia quartet, and everyone took part in community singing, under the direction of William Madden. Walter W. Morris was toastmaster, and was introduced by K. Ray Ballantine. Harry J. Mapp, president of the organization, gave an address of welcome. The past presidents were introduced by Thomas F. Whitehead, and Clarence O. Rosen presented F. F. Hopkins with a diamond studded watch charm as indication of the organization's appreciation for his services as its head last year.

The dinner was followed by a cotillion. Tommie Owens was cotillion leader, and the music was furnished by the Ray Fiske orchestra.

Forty members of the Englewood Kiwanis club attended the banquet in a body. Over 200 were in attendance.

OMIT INFANT WELFARE PARTY FOR HOLIDAYS

There will be no Christmas party given this year by the Southtown Infant Welfare association at Ogden Park owing to the large membership enrollment. Facilities or their accommodation at the affair are lacking.

Christmas relief work will be done by mothers. Money contributions have been made by many of the members to relieve want in needy homes. Mrs. Charles Brown, superintendent, and her assistants will direct the Christmas cheer activities.

Women's organizations are assisting in the work of the station by serving there on certain days. The Harvard Parent-Teacher association furnished volunteer service in November and the Marquette Manor Woman's club will be assigned for January. The Hamilton Park Woman's club will assist in February.

Financial contribution were recently received by the association from the Neighborhood Woman's club, the West Englewood Business District association members and the West Englewood Lions club. The latter organization pledged its aid to the station and $400 have already been sent in by members assessed $10 each.

Dr. Helen L. Button, secretary, has invited visitors to inspect the welfare station. It is open from 12 to 3 o'clock Mondays and Thursdays.

DR. BUNDESON AT CHENEY MEMORIAL

Dr. Herman N. Bundeson, Chicago commissioner of health, will be the principal speaker at a special Christmas service of the Bishop Cheney Memorial Sunday school, 70th st. and Yale ave., at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, December 21.

This service marks the closing of an international Sunday school attendance contest between the Bishop Cheney Memorial church (Reformed Episcopal) and the Christ church, Toronto, Canada.

Dr. Bundeson's subject will be, "How the Birth of Christ Brought Light and Health to the World." There will be no admission charge.

JUNIOR ASSISTANT SALES MANAGER FOR ECONOMIST

The Southtown Economist takes pride in announcing an addition to its advertising staff. LeRoy Hoyt Millner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Millner, arrived Sunday morning at the Augustana hospital. Mr. Millner is assistant sales manager for Foster & McDonnell, Economist publishers, and the Millners make their home at 6951 Peoria st.

WILL REMEMBER LESS LUCKY CHILDREN AT CHRISTMAS

The children of the Normal Park Baptist church, 70th and Stewart, including the Camp Fire group of that church, are remembering the Maywood Baptist Home and the Aiken Institute at Christmas time. They aim to bring good cheer to others less fortunate than they by showering gifts, candy and playing the part of Santa Claus to the children of these homes.

again with the gun. To offset this trend we will need officers backed by an aroused public sentiment demanding that they be constantly on their toes.

"The time will soon come, I believe, when, outside of a few large cities, the United States will have the prohibition law in force.

Improve 50 Percent

"During the past year an improvement of 50 percent has been noted. With a force of sixty-eight men in the prohibition department of Illinois, the federal officers have made 1,900 arrests and secured the granting of injunctions in 1,400 cases involving property valued at $2,500,000,000. As a result of 15,000 inspections 540 places have been found operating in violation of the law and all 540 have had their permits revoked. A total of $78,513 has been collected. The department has also assisted in closing eighteen breweries and sent Dougan and Lake to the penitentiary after closing their five breweries.

"The tendency of the state courts to try to pass the buck to the federal courts in all liquor cases hinders law enforcement. The question requires patience, but the goal is worth it, because it means better citizenship, better homes, better fed and clothed children, healthier bodies, clearer minds, a vindication of law enforcement in the United States."

Following the talks D. L. Gilday, president of the league, 6731 Perry ave., told the association of the cooperation which had been given him by both Mr. Yurcell's department and Chief Collins.

Once upon a time there was a man who admitted that he had no sense of humor.—Life.

Church News

(All churches in the community are welcome to contribute notices of services and news of their various activities to this column, where material will be printed as nearly in the form in which it is submitted as possible. All announcements must be in the hands of the editor no later than 11 o'clock Tuesday morning for insertion in the current issue)

Ogden Park Methodist Episcopal Church, 68th st. at Loomis blvd., Frank David Lawyer, minister, 6755 Bishop st. Sunday, December 21, 9:45 a. m., Sunday school, all departments. 11 a. m., the minister will preach a special Christmas sermon to the children. Theme: "The Little Child and the Age of Gold." There will be two anthems by the choir: "The Gift of God," by Wilson, and "The Birthday of a King," Neidlinger. R. C. Crawford will sing a solo.

The Epworth league will meet at 6:45 p. m., and at 8 p. m. there will be a special Christmas musical service. The choir will render four anthems besides solos and duets. Mr. Lawyer will give a short Christmas meditation.

Garfield Boulevard M. E. Church, 55th st. and Emerald ave., George Taylor Nesmith, pastor, 717 W. Garfield blvd., Englewood 6149. Christmas services Sunday, December 21.

Morning service, 10:45 a. m. Prelude, "Noel," Dudley Buck; "Floria" (St. Cecilia Mass), Gounod, Mrs. McClellan and choir; "The People That Walked in Darkness" (Rogers), Miss Brown, Mr. Longer and choir; Christmas sermon, the Rev. G. T. Nesmith; offertory, "Christmas Musette," Alphonse Mailly; postlude, "Hosanna," Wachs.

Evening service, 7:45 p. m.: Prelude, "Christmas Eve," Malling; solos, Mrs. George Menagh and Mr. Longer; story, "The Other Wise Men (Van Dyke), pastor; "Christmas March," Ashford.

Salem Evangelical Church, 6820 Emerald ave., Normal 2994, Joseph A. George, pastor, 6824 Emerald ave., Normal 9046. Sunday, December 21, Bible school, 9:15; divine worship, 10:30; sermon, "The Royal Guest at Your Door."

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the primary and beginners' department of the Bible school will have a special Christmas service, to which an invitation is extended to all who wish to enjoy little folks' performances. On Sunday evening at 7:30 a special Christmas service has been arranged for the other departments of the Bible school.

On Friday evening, December 19, the Bible school workers will hold their monthly meeting to make final arrangements for their Christmas celebration. Supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock. At the last campaign meeting, held on Friday, December 12, all the workers were made very happy when they saw the thermometer rise to the sum of $7,084 for Salem, which assured them that they would not have to wait long for the day to come when they would enter their new house of worship.

Julia Gay Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Garfield blvd. and Paulina st., Charles J. Dickey, pastor, 5544 Honore st., Republic 10504. "The Coming of the King," a Christmas oratorio, by Dudley Buck, will be sung and dramatized by the choir under the direction of Carl Theman, with Mrs. Doris Olson and Miss Marguerite Buckberg at the piano, at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, December 21.

This oratorio is a story of the birth of Christ and is full of tuneful music and beautiful dramatic settings. The caravan of the wise men across the desert, the scene in the court of King Herod, and the manger scene are treats to the eye and ear.

The following soloists will sing the main parts: "King Herod," Mr. Theman; tenor, Arthur Groh; soprano, Mrs. Doris Olson; contralto, Miss Myrtle Mandi; "Three Magi," Milton Kerr, Arthur Groh and Edward Pohlmann.

9:45 a. m., Sunday school, Frank J. McKeag, superintendent;; 11 a. m., public worship, Christmas sermon by the pastor and Christmas music by the choir under the direction of Mr. Theman, Mrs. Olson at the piano, and Mrs. Borden Friend on the violin. Every one go to church at Christmas time. 6:45 p. m., Epworth league devotional service, Miss Frances Balantine, president.

TO LAY CORNERSTONE FOR NEW CHURCH

Rev. William L. Mueller

The cornerstone of the new Evangelical Lutheran Golgotha church, W. Marquette rd. and Lincoln st., will be laid at 2:30 o'clock next Sunday afternoon, December 21. The Rev. E. G. John will deliver an address in German and the Rev. F. C. Streutert will address the congregation in the English language. Both are well known ministers in the Lutheran church. Following the addresses the Rev. William L. Mueller, pastor of the church, will lay the cornerstone. All the friends of Golgotha church are invited.

Ground for the new structure, which will be about a $100,000 improvement, was broken November 19. The building is being erected west of the present school at 67th and Lincoln, the upper floor of which is used at present for church services, and will face on Marquette rd. Golgotha congregation is fourteen years old and the present pastor has served it since its organization.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAMS PLANNED BY PUPILS

820 Englewood ave. A dress rehearsal will take place Thursday morning. Christmas assemblies will be held at 9 o'clock and at 2 o'clock Thursday. The rhythm band of the kindergarten entertained the parent-teacher association Tuesday evening and will be heard again Friday morning. The kindergarten children will celebrate with a tree. The parent-teacher association and pupils will co-operate to assure every poor family in the neighborhood a Christmas dinner.

Gifts made by the kindergarten pupils of Wentworth school, 6950 Sangamon st., will be hung on the Christmas tree in their department Friday to be presented to parents attending their exercises. The children made the decorations for the tree, including stars and chains of paper. The morning sections are in charge of Miss Edna Everett and Miss Edna Lethenstrom. The other rooms will hold parties Friday. There will be no general Christmas celebration at the school, due to its overcrowded condition, necessitating a shift schedul

Assemblies will be held at the Sherwood school, 245 W. 57th st., Friday at which songs will be sung and a Christmas program given. The pupils will attend an assembly this afternoon in connection with the celebration Friday. Two trees are being trimmed. The school nurse is investigating cases to which the students can give Christmas aid.

Friday will be devoted to an all-day celebration of Christmas at the Brownell school, 6509 Perry ave. Each room will contribute some feature of the entertainment and will have the other rooms as its guests. The first, second and third grades will give plays. The primary children will play selections on a toy orchestra. The school will have a Christmas tree. Each pupil will be presented with candy by the parent-teacher association.

Members of the parent-teacher association of Carter practice school, 5740 Michigan ave., will attend the programs given by the different grades in the class rooms Friday. The younger children will sing Christmas carols around a Christmas tree.

OFFER REWARD IN SEARCH FOR GIRL

Since police search has been thus far unavailing, radio announcements have been resorted to and a reward is being offered for information that will lead the parents of Isabelle Graham to find the girl who disappeared from her home at 5735 Loomis st. Wednesday morning. The girl, who is 21 years old, left her home ostensibly to go to work, but at the mail order house where she was supposed to have been employed it was found she had not been seen for two weeks. She weighs about 110 pounds and has dark hair and eyes. At the time of her disappearance she wore a wine colored coat, brown velvet hat, brown oxfords and hose.

GERMAN POLICE DOG HAS LITTER OF 13

Records were broken when Lady Doornek, 1½-year-old German police dog, became the mother of a litter of thirteen living puppies through a blue blooded sire, Iwan Von Kir Mainkur, a police dog imported from Germany, who has taken the championship in seven dog shows in Germany and fourteen in America.

Lady Doornek was bought by Geo Stuhlmiller, 5336 Aberdeen st., when she was six months old. The usual litter with this specie of dogs is nine puppies, and the records of the American Kennel club show that this is the first time a German police dog ever had such a large litter.

FIRE BURNS THROUGH ROOF

Fire, supposed to have been caused by a defective chimney, burned through the roof of the home of C. C. Parsell, 628 W. 61st pl., at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning of last week. The flames were put out without much difficulty.

LOCAL POLICEMAN ARRESTS SUSPECTS IN ROBBERIES

Jean Monette, 4715 Prairie ave., whose police record shows that he has taken part in over 100 "stick-ups," is now lodged in the county jail awaiting a grand jury trial.

With him is a companion, Sylvester Sell, 4709 Prairie ave., who also has a police record. The boys were arrested last Thursday by Officer Thomas McCarthy, of the 3rd district, who lives at 6815 Parnell ave.

It is believed that the boys have been implicated in many of the 'hold-ups' that have been terrorizing citizens of the South side. A preliminary hearing took place at the 48th st. and Wabash ave. police court. The bonds were set at $7,500.

VERY RICH AND VERY POOR RECEIVE BEST HOSPITAL TREATMENT

WARDEN OF COOK COUNTY HOSPITAL TELLS KIWANIANS OF INSTITUTION

Nearly one hundred thousand people—98,945, to be exact—were examined, treated or housed in the Cook county hospital in the year that ended November 30, according to figures given by Michael F. Zimmer, warden of the institution, in his talk Tuesday, made at the meeting of the Englewood Kiwanis club. Mr. Zimmer, who is a Kiwanian and president of the West Side club, was formerly warden at the Joliet penitentiary.

"There are, today, 1,700 patients at the hospital, and this number is maintained throughout the year," said Mr. Zimmer. "The average cost of keeping one patient in the hospital is $2.95 a day. Of this sum $2.06 is spent for salaries and nursing the other 89 cents covering all other expenses, such as food, heat, furniture, repairs, medicines, dressings and the other essentials.

"Ninety-two physicians make up the medical staff, and these men, who work without pay, are chosen on a competitive civil service examination and are connected with the hospital for a period of six years. They are assigned to those cases in which they specialize. There are sixty-six internes assigned to the hospital, and these, too, are selected on examinations. The nursing staff is the best in the city.

"Claims that the county institution gives treatment to those who are in a position to pay has no foundation. All cases, except emergencies, are carefully investigated by the county agent, and where it can be found that the patient is able to pay he is refused admittance. However, no reference is ever made of the fact that the hospital is a charitable institution, and there is no thought in our minds except giving the inmates the best of care. There are many instances where wealthy people are brought to us when injured in accidents, and when they learn of the care that is given them they are more than willing to stay until fully recovered.

"The efficiency of the Cook county hospital proves the statement that only the very rich and the very poor receive the best of treatment."

Mr. Zimmer came to address the meeting as a guest of Henry F. Jaeger.

Three new members were welcomed into the club. They are Charles Blosgen, Emil Ericksen and William H. Cloe. James E. Armstrong, principal of the Englewood high school, made the welcoming address and presented them with membership pins.

The club decided to hold no meeting on December 27, their regular meeting day, that falls between Christmas and New Year's Day.

The members of the club voted unanimously to give a dollar each for a Christmas fund for the Ladies' Aid society of the Pilgrim Congregational church, which has served them with the luncheons for the year. Harry Englestein, Frank Hopkins and James Monahan made the collection.

Walter McCoy, president of the Rainbow Ice Cream company, furnished a special treat in the form of moulded ice cream.

PURPLE SENIOR SWIMMERS WIN CITY TOURNEY

Other Local Schools Make Good Showing As Ten Records Are Broken

Amid the breaking of ten prep swimming records, Englewood senior tankers splashed their way to the title in the Chicago high schools' annual swimming tournament in the University of Chicago pool Saturday. The purple natators gathered 41 points in the senior division—eleven more than their nearest foe, Lane—but the junior entries failed to score. Senn copped off third place in the senior class with 21 points and Lindblom due largely to the stellar work of Richard Peterson, landed fourth with fifteen markers. Parker's entries finished fifth with eight points and Tilden came in seventh with five counters.

Local schools failed to show up well in the junior division. Stapleton, by winning third place in the 40-yard crawl and fourth place in the 100-yard swim, gathered three points for Tilden. Bennett made Parker's lone point by finishing fourth in the 100-yard crawl. Lindblom failed to score.

Most of the records went by the boards as a result of excellent work of swimmers from other than Southtown schools. Kenneth Sinclair, the purple plunger, hung up a new mark by floating the sixty-foot tank in thirty-one seconds, shaving five seconds off of the previous mark. Peterson of Lindblom crashed the record for the 100-yard breast stroke by covering the distance in 1:12 3-5. His time was more than two seconds less than the previous mark, held by Baskind, a former Englewood boy. Baskind, now swimming with Senn high, was second to the Lindblom entry.

Following are the senior summaries:

Plunge for distance—Won by Sinclair (Englewood); Hoey (Tilden), second; Voelkmen (Lindblom), third; Atwood (Senn), fourth. Time, :31. (New record; old record made by Sankstone, Senn, :36).

40 yard swim—Won by Peterson (Lane); Walker (Englewood), second; Oker (Parker), third, Carter (Lindblom), fourth. Time: :19 4-5. (New record; old record made by Topp (Lane) and Herschberger (Harrison), :20.)

20 yard tired swimmer—Won by Tauber (Englewood), Selinger (Harrison), second; Helsberg (Senn), third, Vanderpoik (Parker), four. Time 16 1-5.

100 yard swim—Won by Walker (Englewood); Crooks (Englewood), second; Colbath (Lane), third, Schanen (Harrison), fourth. Time, :61.

100 yard breast stroke—Won by Peterson (Lindblom); Baskind (Senn), second; Sulkowski (Tilden), third, Tauber (Englewood), fourth. Time, 1:12 3-5. (New record; old record, made by Baskind (Englewood), 1:14 4-5.)

20 yard cross shoulder—Won by Rabens (Senn); Malonowski (Lane), second; Kafka (Harrison), third; Marbeck (Lane), fourth. Time, :18 4-5. (New record; old record, made by Rand (Lane), :20.)

20 yard head carry—Won by Peterson (Lindblom); K. Monson (Lake View), second; Dufreene (Senn), third, J. Monson (Lake View), fourth. Time, :18 2-5. (New record, old record, made by Ryan (Senn), :18 4-5.)

220 yard swim—Won by Crooks (Englewood); Colbath (Lane), second; Knox (Englewood), third; Heipe (Senn), fourth. Time, 2:40 2-5.

Relay—Won by Lane (Morbeck, L. Colbath, H. Malonowski, Seehausen, W. Colbath, D. Peterson); Englewood, second; Senn, third; Lindblom, fourth. Time, 2:09 1-5. (New record; old record, made by Hyde Park, 2:11 4-5.)

Fancy diving—Won by W. Colbath (Lane), Steadwell (Englewood), second; Wall (Englewood), third; Malonowski (Lane), fourth.

ENGLEWOOD CHRISTIANS TAKE LEAD IN NORMAL ARTS BASKET CIRCUIT

VICTORY OVER BROOKLINE EARNS COVETED POSITION

Leadership in the Normal Arts division of the Church league came to the Englewood Christians Friday by virtue of their 22 to 18 victory over the Brookline Presbyterians.

Heavy scoring by Brown and Fewkes, forwards, and Boyle, center, was enough to trim the Presbyterian five. Fewkes caged the ball four times and Brown and Boyle are each credited with three ringers.

Englewood led from the start and McKay, who made four successful shots for the losers was the only player that gave the Christians any trouble.

McHALE DEFEATS ENGLEWOOD IN K. C. CAGE RACE

RIVALRY KEEN AS FIVES PLAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP OF CLUB HOUSE

McHale proved a stumbling block to Englewood Council cagers in their Knights of Columbus league march Sunday at the Eighth Regiment armory by handing them a 17 to 12 defeat. The game was to decide the title of the Harvard ave. club house the councils share and more than ordinary rivalry was exhibited.

Englewood's loss of Hoey, star center, at a critical stage of the game gave McHale an advantage. The losers held a slight lead, 8 to 7, at halftime but were playing a game that threatened to leave their foes with the shorter end of the score. However, the fourth personal foul was called on Hoey at the start of the second quarter and he was forced to leave the game. With the strongest cog in the Englewood machine missing McHale found things easy. Englewood was held to four points in the last half while McHale counted ten. Feeney, McHale's center, finished the game brilliantly by making two baskets on jumps under the hoop.

MORGAN CAGERS WILL PLAY IN CHURCH GYM

Home games of the Morgan Park basketball team will be played in the gymnasium of the Morgan Park Baptist church, 110th st. and Irving ave., according to Coach Charles R. Davenport. Wednesday will be the day set aside for entertaining the visitors in the south section of the prep league race, while the Hermosa ave. cagers will go traveling on Mondays. The schedule has been revised to allow for the change in playing days.

Morgan's gym is too small to seat spectators without interfering with the players, and fast playing is hampered by the crowding of the sidelines by the fans.

The revised schedule of Morgan Park's games is as follows:

Jan. 8—Morgan Part at Bowen. Jan. 14—Calumet at Morgan Park. Jan. 19—Morgan Park at Parker. Jan. 21—Fenger at Morgan Park. Jan. 28—Bowen at Morgan Park. Feb. 2—Morgan Park at Calumet. Feb. 4—Parker at Morgan Park. Feb. 9—Morgan Park at Fenger.

The Job of Being A Dad

By FRANK H. CHELEY
President Father and Son League of America

PRESENT METHODS PRODUCE BUT ORDINARY BOYS

Common social standards determine to a very large extent today what the boy may do and be or what he may not do or be and still retain his membership in decent society. He grows without any definite plan. He develops in spite of the prolonged droughts of lack of understanding. He "ears out," as it were, in spite of unintentional ignorant repression and careless slipshod methods of cultivation and training. Oh, yes, here and there a superb boy blossoms out, but usually as a result of an accidental combination of favorable circumstances rather than because of any predefined plan of unfolding.

It isn't strange, then, is it, that the vast bulk of boys are just ordinary? In a tire factory they would call them seconds—ugly fact, but true, nevertheless, made more hideous by the fact that it is largely preventable. Idealists may idealize the boy, sentimentalists may drag forth their evidence to prove that the "dear little fellows will come out all right in the end." Theorists may argue the comparative importance of heredity and environment, but the boy population of the land is irrefutable evidence that present methods produce but ordinary boys.

The whole world is full of just ordinary men, living on an ordinary plane, with ordinary ambitions, aspirations and ideals, because society is content to go on year after year bringing into being ordinary babies that are handled in the ordinary way until they grow into ordinary boys, who in turn quickly—almost overnight—step into years of majority and become ordinary men, when a considerable number of them might just as well have become extraordinary by means of scientific cultivation, the result of trained parenthood. For if scientific cultivation means anything, it means trained dads. Plumbers are trained, and horse doctors are trained, and barbers are trained, but dads—any man may become a dad and spoil a boy!

We have good parents, of course, who are interested in the progress and development of their boys, but the great trouble is they are too easily satisfied. A vast number of parents are actualy satisfied if their offspring earns a fair wage, is respectable and keeps out of jail.

Every city and hamlet in this nation is full of diamonds in the rough, but the expert cutters are lacking. Wealth untold is at our very doors, yet we invest our lives chasing "will-o'-the-wisps. The most interesting occupation on earth is training and developing young men into big, broad-gauge, capable, unselfish, useful men. It has more challenge in it than business or sport, more romance than society, more solid satisfaction than wealth or ease, and yet we get so busy pursuing things that at the end of the road all we have is ordinary boys.

BASKET TEAMS ENTER LEAGUE FROM CHENEY

The Bishop Cheney Memorial church, 70th st. and Yale ave., has entered two teams in the Cook county Sunday School basketball league.

This is their first year in the league. The recently completed enlargement of their buildings included a splendid gymnasium and under the coaching of Hubert Curtis, a former University of Chicago star, they hope to develop a real champion style in both heavyweight and bantam classes.

PARKER, TILDEN DIVIDE DOUBLE BASKET CARD

Normal Ave. Heavies Make Up Previous Defeat, But Lights Lose Again

Parker split a double cage bill with the Tilden Tech teams on the Parker floor Thursday, the Green and White heavies trouncing the visitors, 15 to 11, while the invading lights nosed out Coach Wasserman's quintet, 10 to 11. The games were a return engagement of the meeting the teams had the Tuesday previous when the Tilden fives won both ends of the doubleheader.

Opening up with long shots during the fourth quarter, the Parker heavies came from behind to defeat the Techs. Tilden had taken a commanding lead in the first period on DeFrancisco's basket shooting, but Parker evened things up a little in the next stanza and at half-time the count was 9 to 7 in favor of the visitors. Tilden's lead was cut down to one point in the third quarter when Ferner made a basket and a free throw to one ringer counted by DeFrancisco.

Flesher started the fourth period by sinking a basket from midfloor and then he followed up with a penalty toss. Speakman sewed up the game with another long shot. Tilden was held without a point.

Box score:

Parker (15)	B	F	P	Tilden (11)	B	F	P
Gerner, rf	2	2	1	De Fran'co, rf	3	1	2
Tolman, lf	0	2	0	Freiwald, lf	1	0	0

Failure to cage free throws was responsible to the lights' defeat. In the six chances that were offered them from the free throw line they made only one point. A good eye would have enabled them to overcome the Tech's one point margin of victory.

The first half was featured by lack of scoring due to some unusually tight guarding. Parker was weakened in this department of the game because of the absence of Taylor, the school's star running guard, who was late in arriving for the fray. In the first half Tilden made three points on Barry's basket and free throw, while Parker registered only one marker on Nichols' throw after a foul.

Baskets by Brooks, Tell and Taylor gave Parker the lead in the third period. Heath and Gardner sank the winning baskets for Tilden as the time for the final whistle neared.

STANDINGS CHANGE AT BRUCK'S, BUT BIRK'S STILL HOLD BIG LEAD

BLOUIN'S FIVE AND ROYAL SALES CLIMB UP WITH VICTORIES

Birk's Beverages increased their lead to four games in Bruck's bowling circuit Wednesday when they whitewashed the Peterson and Lenz outfit in what was carded to be the banner match of the evening. Rubinis won a couple and now have second place all to themselves while W. C. Booterys pulled into a tie for fourth place when they cleaned up the L. C. Smiths. Blouins and Royal Sales also went up a few notches. High spots of the evening's matches were a 259 game by Wiesner and one of 258 by Lightfoot, a 634 total by the former and a 1507 count by Sullivan Milk company. Birk's Beverage totaled 2920 after a 1056 start.

Sullivan Milk won the first against Royal Sales with 1057 and were through for the evening. Lightfoot starred for the winners with 258 for the money and a 619 total. Baxter followed with 576. Cramsie shot two good games and led the losers with 617, followed by Blackwell's 579 and Black's 564.

W. C. Booterys calcimined the Englewood Cleaners when Ohman shot 613 and Nellis 586, followed by Guston and Gabe with 574 and 567 respectively.

Blouins climbed several places when they trimmed L. C. Smiths three times. McCormick starred for Blue Island with 604 and Bauer with 550. Petersen's 536 led the Smith team and Scott's 225 won the cash.

FRIENDSHIP IN SECOND PLACE AT NORMAL ARTS

Friendship Center went into a tie for second place in the Normal Arts division of the Church league Friday by trouncing the Normal Park Presbyterians, 18 to 12.

Leatherman, the star from Normal, led the scoring but was given poor support by his mates. Weeks, Friendship's leading player in past years, made his appearance in the final period but added nothing to the score.

VAIL'S BASKETS ENABLE AUBURN CHURCH TO WIN

Second United Presbyterians Defeated by 20—12 Score

Vail's five baskets enabled the Auburn Park M. E. five to trounce the Second United Presbyterians, 20 to 12, in a church league game at the Normal Arts gym Friday.

Although the teams played evenly during the first half, the Presbyterians displayed the better floor game. Their teamwork was excellent and only the good defensive play of the Auburn guards prevented them from rolling up the count. Auburn showed some old-time form in the second session and did most of the scoring.

In addition to Vail's five ringers from the floor Smith caged three and Ender one. The Presbyterians found the hoop only three times from the floor, the shots being made by Hill, McCloud and MacKenzie. Six personal fouls were called on the Auburn five and the Presbyterians took good advantage of the chances offered them from the free throw line. McCloud starred for the losers and scored four of the team's six points on penalty heaves.

Auburn is scheduled to take on the Englewood Christian quintet next Friday and a good game is in prospect.

NORMAL WINS SECOND PRACTICE CAGE TILT

Normal College won its second practice game with Morton College, Cicero, yesterday at Parker gymnasium by a score of 29 to 22. Good passing and Morton's inability to register points on its chances gave the game to the home team. The score was 12 to 9 at the end of a half and had gone further in Normal's favor when Peacock, the stellar forward, was out with injuries. The individual star for Morton was the center, Stanicek.

OGDEN ENTRIES WIN HONORS IN HORSESHOE MEET

Dan Cooper Brings State Title Back to Local Park

Ogden Park horseshoe pitchers cleaned up in the state amateur tournament staged jointly by the Ogden Horseshoe Pitching club and the Chicago playground council Sunday at the Grant Park stadium. Local entries won championships in the men's, boys' and women's open divisions.

Dan Cooper, winner in the men's division, did the most sensational pitching in bringing the honors to the local club. At the start of the tournament he was not rated highly and the dopesters had picked several downstate players that they believed were more than his match. Cooper's first real test came in the third round with W. L. Lamar of Aurora, one of the favorites. Cooper trimmed Lamar, 50 to 39, and from then on pitched ringers almost at will in going through the opposition. In the final match, the local barnyard golfer defeated J. W. Thompson of the Northwest Horseshoe club, 50 to 15. In addition to the state title, the victory carried with it Chicago playground honors and Cooper won a silver loving cup and a gold medal.

J. J. McInerney of the local club, a student at De La Salle high school, won the junior boys' state championship by showing spectacular form. Throughout the tournament young McInerney exhibited a better brand of playing than he had ever before been capable. His hardest game was against a clubmate, Harry Krugman, in the semi-final round. Krugman won third place in the tournament.

In an exhibition game Cooper handed a 50 to 25 setback to Johnny Hogan, former state champ, who has now turned professional, and this victory gives the Ogden player claim to all Illinois titles.

The Ogden Park club brought Mrs. C. A. Lanham of Bloomington, the women's world champion, to the tournament for a series of exhibition games. Herman Simmons of Ogden was the player present who was capable to defeating the downstate woman by a score of 30 to 27. Simmons won third place in the finals of the playground tournament.

Miss Clara Koleski, of the Fulton school and Ogden Park won first place in the women's open division. Miss Julia Hannan was second and Mrs. John Hogan, unattached, third.

Eight out of the fourteen trophies offered at the meet were returned to Ogden Park.

GARY BOXING BILL POSTPONED TO 29TH

Battling Jack Nelson's boxing show, carded for Gary December 19, has been postponed until December 29, but the bill remains the same with "Dixie Al" Zainey and "Sonny" Lloyd slated to furnish the windup. The postponement was caused by the fact that the East Chicago club was putting on a show on the same night, and since the two attractions would result in light attendance at both, Nelson agreed to set back the date of his bouts in courtesy to the other manager, who had already secured his advertising matter.

They're Best Gymnasts in South Parks

PARKER RIFLEMEN TRIM MORGAN PARK

Parker high school's rifle team won its first interscholastic shooting match from Morgan Park last week by a score of 336 to 289. Cadet Lieut. Lusk of Parker had the high score of 73 and Cadet Lieut. Pulaski of Parker and Hodgman of Morgan shared second high honors with scores of 72. Parker's squad did its shooting Monday and Paul Wheeler of Morgan witnessed the scoring. Sidney Pulaski of Parker witnessed Morgan's shooting Wednesday.

The Green and White team is in excellent form and is out to win the city championship. The squad's next match is with the Lindblom cadets.

Following are the scores shot against Morgan, the five highest being counted for the decision:

Parker (336)		Morgan Pk. (289)

JOHN M. LEE'S TEAM STARTS WITH VICTORY

Coach Bill Brown's John M. Lee basketball team started the season with a brilliant victory over the fast West End Blues at Pulaski Park Saturday night, by a score of 33 to 21.

Bob Hayes, star football center, proved his versatility in the athletic line by caging eight baskets from all parts of the floor. McHugh's close guarding and J. Bruck's perfect free throw record also featured. Anderson starred for the Blues, both on the defense and the offense.

Captain Tommy Reynolds of the Lees, injured in the Thanksgiving day football game, will probably be out in uniform in a week or two, thereby strengthening the team considerably.

Coach Brown has booked the fast Lyons Brothers' team for Wednesday night at Lyons Brothers' gymnasium.

BLOCH'S TRIANGLES, AUBURN CARDINALS BATTLE TO 0-0 TIE

BOTH TEAMS SHOW THEIR BEST FORM IN SEASON'S CLOSER

With both teams showing their best form of the season, a scoreless deadlock resulted Sunday when the Bloch's Triangles and the Auburn Cardinals met to play off an incompleted combat of the week previous that had left the score 6 to 0 in the Triangles favor. On their record the Triangles have made claim to the south side gridiron championship, having won seven games, lost two and tied the season's closer.

During the first quarter it became apparent that only luck would enable either team to count. Players on both squads seemed pointed for the game and maintained a high pitch of energy. Well organized play was exhibited by both elevens and the defensive work was at its best. Albright and Bloch took the limelight for the Triangles. For speed and accuracy in following the ball, Albright was constantly conspicuous. His outstanding feat came in the first quarter when he circled the Cardinal's left end for twenty-five yards, placing the pigskin on his foes' ten yard line. Bloch earned credit for his tackling and at a number of times he stopped the Cardinals and averted an imminent change in the score.

For the Cardinals Lucy and Maher displayed themselves as the best in the offensive tactics. Both gained ground repeatedly through the Triangles' forward wall. Flynn contributed greatly to the success of the defense.

SEWARD PARK OWLS ROUTED BY ROAMERS

Holding the Seward Park Owls to one basket in the second half of a game Wednesday at Seward park, the Cornell Roamers added another decisive victory to their string, the final count standing 27 to 8.

At the start of the fray the Owls momentarily held the lead. De Carlo dropped in two ringers before the Roamers got started. Successive baskets by Moellering, Larkin and Anderson allowed the locals to forge ahead at the end of the first quarter. The Roamers' score kept climbing during the second session and in the second half the game was turned into a rout when the Cornell cagers began to drop baskets from all corners of the court.

During the last quarter the Owls fouled repeatedly, but this availed them nothing as the Roamers proved to have a good eye from the free throw line. Not a single foul was called on the Cornell players.

WILL FLOOD NORMAL CAMPUS FOR SKATING

Students of Normal and Parker and residents of the neighborhood will be able to use the Normal campus for skating this week if the weather continues cold. The hockey field, which was made surrounded by a ridge, will be flooded before the holidays if nothing interferes, President W. B. Owen has promised.

NORMAL INDOOR GOLF COURSE TO OPEN SOON

With the opening of the Normal Indoor Golf course at 6834 Halsted st. Thursday, Southtown golfers will be given another place in which to keep in trim during the winter months. The school occupies the entire second floor of the building and has an area of 8,000 square feet. It is second in size only to Bob MacDonald's school in the Leiter building, but the owners, Fred A. Eskridge, champ of Dixmoor, and Earl E. Sherman, claim its eighteen hole putting course is the longest in the city. Three pitch shots and a water hole make the putting course a sporty one.

In addition to the putting course the equipment includes ten driving nets. Three professionals, Walter Apel of Dixmoor, Henry Borgwart of Idlewild and Herman Friebig of Olympia Fields, will be on hand to give instructions. Mr. Apel will act in the capacity of manager.

Featuring the opening Walter Crowder of Dixmoor and Eldridge Robinson, a former Englewood high school boy, who jointly hold the Chicago indoor championship, will meet a pair of representative golfers in an exhibition putting match.

Memberships in the club are being sold on a yearly basis.

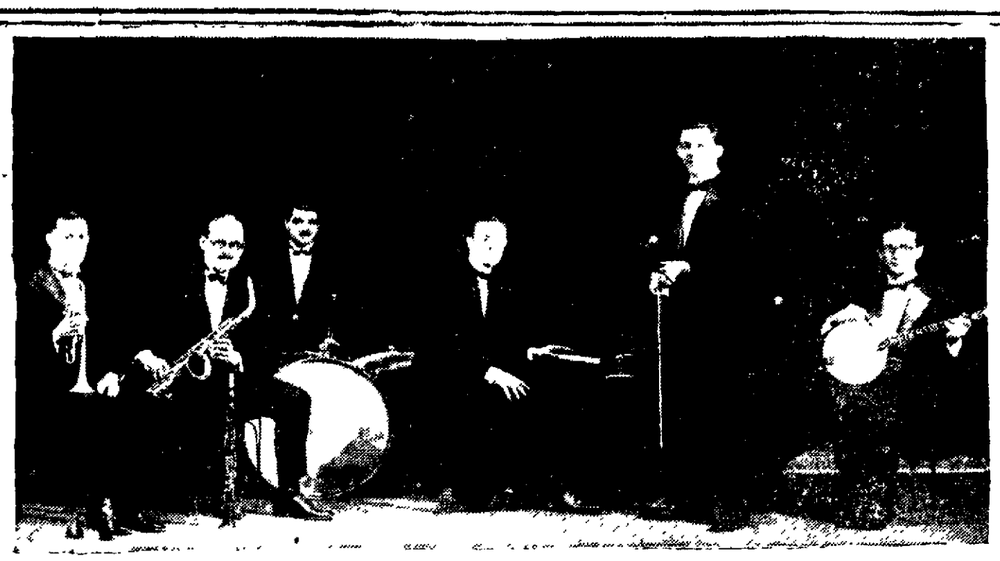
LISTENERS TO WBCN WILL HEAR THESE ARTISTS DURING NEXT FEW WEEKS



Upper left—Ann Swenson, soprano, who sang from WBCN last Saturday night and who will be heard again from the same station in a short time.

Upper center—Joe Urban's orchestra, which made its radio deput at WBCN. This topnotch group is on the bill for Thursday night.

Upper right—Miss Edna Salamon, contralto. She sang at WBCN on opening night and once since. She is to return again soon.

Lower left—Alma Schulz, reader, who appeared on the Chicago church athletic ass'n program last Saturday night. She has been asked to gratify WBCN listeners again.

Lower right—Gus Novy's Austonians. This popular orchestra comes all the way from Austin every Thursday to entertain the radio public from WBCN.

SEVERAL METHODS OF MAKING RECEIVERS MORE SELECTIVE ARE DETAILED BY TECHNICIAN

Five Ideas, Varying in Cost and Degree of Selectivity-Increase, Submitted by Economist Expert—All Will Aid in Tuning Out Local Stations

By WALTER J. McDONNELL
(Economist Radio Technician)

In reply to requests for information on methods of making radio receivers more selective, we are submitting several ideas that have been tried and found effective. Any one of these will make a radio set more selective and by a little experimenting you can determne which is most efficient

It is not necessary to acquire all the parts shown here at once. Start with one of the tests and add to your equipment until the desired results are obtained.

In the accompanying diagram, marked Figure 1, is shown a .001 fixed condenser, connected in series with the antenna lead, a method that has been reported effective in tuning out WBCN by several users of three-tube sets.

Figure 2 shows the use of a 23-plate variable condenser in place of a fixed condenser, and has been found to be effective in separating stations on wave lengths that are nearly alike.

For greater selectivity Figure 3 shows the use of a 50-turn honeycomb, or plain coil, and a 23-plate condenser, connected in series with the antenna.

No. 4 shows the use of a 50-turn coil in series in the antenna circuit and a 50-turn coil and 23-plate condenser shunted across the antenna and ground binding posts on the set.

For No. 5, a double filter is used, constructed as illustrated. It consists of two circuits. The first includes an inductance coil of about 75 turns in series with a 43-plate condenser, the combination being inserted between the antenna and ground. This circuit is tuned to the wave length of the station to be filtered out, and forms a low impedance path to ground for the high frequency currents of this wave length.

The second circuit of the filter consists of an air core transformer, the primary of which may contain about 15 turns and the secondary about 60 turns, the diameter of the coils being 3 inches.

The secondary is shunted by a 23-plate variable condenser of standard design, and the primary connected between the antenna and the antenna terminal of the radio receiver. The secondary circuit (secondary winding and 23-plate condenser) is then tuned to the wave length to be filtered.

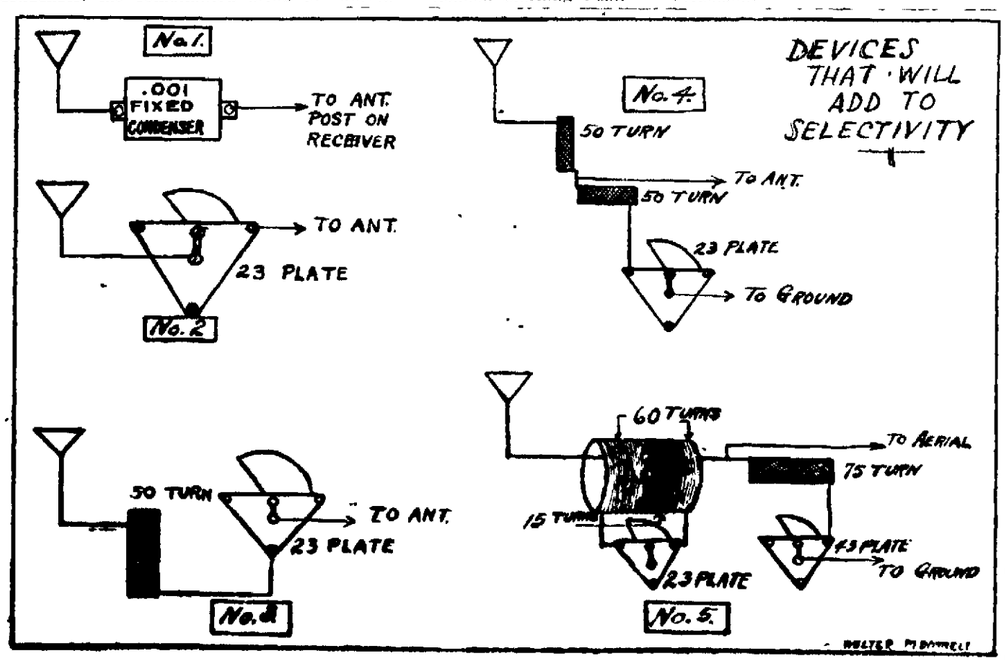
The tuning of the filter circuits is done by listening to the station in the receiver with the filter connected as described, and adjusting the condensers for minimum volume.

And After?

The subject of text finding was being discussed by two clergymen in regard to addresses to married couples at wedding services.

"Do you have a text as a rule?" asked one of the other.

"No, I never have had one," was the reply, "but I know what I should choose if I did have one. It comes from Psalm 72, verse 7—'Abundance of peace, so long as the moon endureth'"—London Morning Post.



C. R. A. TO HELP FANS UNABLE TO TUNE OUT NEIGHBORING STATIONS

ORGANIZATION'S EXPERTS SAY UNSELECTIVITY OF SETS IS TROUBLE

Ways to cut through nearby broadcasting stations with receiving sets that are lacking in selectivity will be detailed in technical talks to be delivered at the next semi-monthly meeting of the Chicago Radio association, which is to be held at the Ogden park fieldhouse Thursday night, starting at 8:15 o'clock.

According to W. J. Hafenbecker, vice-president of the C. R. A., those south siders who are unable to tune out WBCN, the new Southtown Economist station, should not blame WBCN, but should bring their sets up to date. Several simple and inexpensive devices and a circuit in use all over the United States will be explained by experts, who have found by observation that most of the receivers unable to cut through a nearby station are of the home-made variety.

D. A. Mcdonough of the Allen-Bradley Co. and C. M. Holloway will demonstrate some of the latest types of radio equipment, and the latter will tell how to construct a two-tube Rasla reflex set. McDonough's talk will be given in non-technical language so that even the most unskilled of radio enthusiasts can understand

All C. R. A. meetings are open to the public, and there is no admission fee.

The Better Half

"Do I understand you to say," asked the magistrate, "that when you heard a noise you quickly got out of bed, turned on the light, and went to the head of the stairs—that a burglar was at the foot of the stairs and you did not see him? Are you blind?"

"Must I tell the exact truth?" asked the witness, as he mopped his perspiring face and blushed furiously.

"Yes, sir, the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

"Well," replied the man slowly, "my wife was in front of me."—Tid Bits (London)

The business of running a broadcasting station is a business—with the accent decidedly on the first two syllables. Having had something to do with such a station, we know whereof we speak.

In no other line of endeavor can one learn so quickly that "you can't satisfy everybody." What one person goes into ecstacies about drives another into a frenzy of disgust or rage. Only a brief perusal of the fan mail received by any radio station is necessary to illustrate this.

Having gotten that much out of our system, we'll proceed to expose to our gentle readers' gaze a few specimens of mail reaching Station BLAH during the last few days. Look on over carefully so you'll be able to use 'em as guides when you are inspired to praise or razz a station.

Here's Exhibit A:

Radio Station BLAH,
On the Square,
Chicago, Ill.
Gentlemen:

Your program Friday was wonderful. I certainly did enjoy the singing of Manda Lay who, I think, is the best soprano broadcasting from any Chicago station. I particularly liked her when she sang "Oh Solo Meow" or whatever it was. I hope you'll have her on again often. And say, tell Jack Bar and Paul Large to sing, "It Ain't Going to Dirzzle No More," will you? Hoping you are as ever,

Your friend,
(Signed) O. M'Gosh
914 S. Perimo St
Walla Walla, Wash

And here's B:

BLAH, Chicago

When are you going to have some good programs? I think your station is the worst on the air, particularly last Friday's program. I wish I could understand why people with any sense put such screechers on their programs as Manda Lay. When she sang "O Solomo," or rather when she started to, I couldn't tune out quick enough. You ought to be strung up for forcing such stuff upon the public.

(Signed) Alex Phosphorus
123a6½ Pickle St
Coconut City,
Sandwich Islands

Still another example:

To the Announcer:

You have such a wonderful voice that I simply cannot resist writing and asking that you send me your picture real soon. Really, I believe I am falling in love with you and the way you talk. Every night I lie awake for hours dreaming of your eyes (I've never seen them, but I'm certain they must be dreamy). Won't you please let me hear from you soon, as I'm not at all bad to look at (at least, so my friends tell me).

Breathlessly,
Your slave,
(Signed) Henrietta Banana.
Squashville, Ky.

For our final blow, permit us to present:

To the Announcer:

Why don't you open your mouth when you talk? Anyone would think you had it full of hot soup. So far, I've been able to understand almost every third word you say and have some hope of being able to better this record as time goes by. And why spend so much of our valuable time by making us listen to the gush you hand out between numbers? Say what you got to say and then shut up, is my motto.

(Signed) Disgusted,
Coney Island, N. Y.

Need more be said?

Capacity

The street car was jammed, and at the stop several people hammered vainly on the door for admittance.

"Slip your money under the door," said the conductor, "and come back to-morrow night."—Toronto Telegram.

TOM BROWN SAX BAND TO BE AT WBCN, JAN. 6TH

Syd Stein's Castilian Club Orchestra Booked for Thursday Night

One of the biggest attractions ever booked by any radio station is promised those who listen to WBCN, the new Southtown Economist station (266 meters), on the evening of Tuesday, Jan. 6.

On that night the famous Tom Brown Saxophone band, 25 strong, will be on hand in the WBCN studio, 730 W. 65th st., to put on an hour of the finest saxophone music to be had anywhere.

Coming to WBCN through the courtesy of the Tom Brown Music company, W. Lake st., the big sax band will present two groups of numbers, each group lasting one-half hour. Included in this program will be the Six Brown Brothers.

This act when presented on the stage commands exceptionally high compensation and is easily one of the greatest attractions available.

Ten Piece Orchestra

Syd Stein's ten-piece Castilian Club orchestra, which came to Chicago only a few days ago from the Marigold Gardens, Louisville, Ky., where it played for six months, will render probably a dozen popular numbers from WBCN this Thursday night of this week. This orchestra only recently completed six records for the Gennett company and is to be featured at the Chicago, Tivoli, and Riverview theatres on New Years Eve. It will open the new Castilian Club at Argyle st. and Sheridan road, where it will play indefinite engagement.

The leader of the orchestra, Mr Stein is the author of a number of song hits and is widely known in music circles.

WBCN STILL DELUGED WITH MAIL FROM ALL SECTIONS OF NATION

"KNOCKERS" DECIDEDLY IN MINORITY AS COMMENDATORY LETTERS PILE UP

Mail continues to pour into WBCN, the new Southtown Economist radio station, from fans in all sections of the land, not excepting even the Pacific coast. Canada, too, is represented.

Chicago, of course contributes the largest share of the letters and cards arriving daily in large quantities, and, as is to be expected, some adverse criticisms and protests are included. However, the "kickers" are decidedly in the minority and, for the most part, are persons owning sets lacking in selectivity.

Some people "knock" programs because they harbor a grudge against a station for allegedly barring other stations to them. No matter how good a station's programs, if one has to listen continually only to that one station he certainly will not look on them with as much favor as will one who has a choice of stations. For the sake of variety, people will often sacrifice quality.

That WBCN's programs are meeting with approval outside of Chicago is evidenced by the number of persons who have written, wired and even telephoned praise from other cities. When it is considered that many of these people residing outside of Chicago have access to every other station in the country, their expressed preference to WBCN carries with it considerable weight.

Following are a few letters received from listeners-in.

924 Amelia Ave., Akron, Ohio.
December 12, 1924.

Thank you for the privilege given to me last evening of hearing your program. You seemed to be having a good time at the studio and you imparted a feeling of enjoyment to this listener, at least.

Appreciatively yours,
J. C. Post.

Just got our radio installed at about 8 p. m. on the evening of your inaugural program and your station was the first one we tuned in on. We listened in until 3 a. m. Sunday and sure enjoyed your program. Congratulations and good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Borger,
517 W. 111th St., Chicago.

I have heard many people several miles from your station remark that they got nothing else when you were on. Last Thursday night I had time to make a thorough test on my home made Neutrodyne. Within twenty minutes I received on the loud speaker approximately fifteen stations while you were broadcasting.

Your announcer is brief and to the point. He enunciates exceptionally well.

In case you want to know what my musical inclinations are, let me say that I prefer high class violin, vocal and piano numbers, classical selections, I mean. I will tune you out on every piece of jazz, and, remember, you waste everybody's time with mediocre talent.

I have just heard Mrs. Hazel Taylor sing several numbers. Please thank her and her accompanist for their excellent dances.

I went from one extreme of [illegible] the other and there was not a [illegible] even those below 300 meters.

you interfered. I am 2½ miles from WBCN. Last Wednesday evening an Eagle Neutrodyne was demonstrated at Hamilton park, 1½ miles from your station. It experienced no interference on locals and only one or two very distant stations were interfered with.

Your modulation is excellent. Now, keep to a high standard, and especially keep that piano tuned every month.

Yours truly,
Chester Bowers,
8634 Elizabeth St.

Trans Broadcast Listeners' Association of America.

Chicago, Ill.
December 12, 1924.

I have listened with a great deal of interest to the remarks made by the radio fans in the Englewood district in regard to being unable to tune out WBCN station.

I have a fairly good receiving set and I can not enjoy time out WBCN but can tune out any station in Chicago, and listen to any station within a radius of 1,000 miles, getting same clear and loud on the loud speaker.

However, since your station has been on the air I have no desire of tuning out your station. Your concerts are very good, are not at all monotonous as there is a continual change of singing, dance selections, etc., and as far as I am concerned the dials on my set are always at the WBCN wave length, and I take this means of extending to you and the entire staff of WBCN my sincerest congratulations, and wishes for continued success.

Yours very truly,
Jas. A. Post
5748 S. Ada St., Chicago

With only 3 tubes I have no growl on account of interference by your station. Can still bring in Elgin on one side and Joliet on the other, interference on closer frequencies is to be expected due to proximity of your station. I should be an ungrateful fan not to sacrifice willingly those few DX stations in favor of yours.

Very truly yours,
A. Dean Adams
6038 Blackstone Ave., Chicago

I am a great listener of your station and since your Economist paper has put music and songs on the air am a good reader of your paper. I think the best slogan for your station WBCN would be "World's Business Corrected Nightly" by your great program. Thanks to your great program given for children's hour.

An interested WBCN listener,
Harry Luebersan
6317 Maryland Ave.
Chicago

P. S.—That is a swell announcer you have there. Thats you.

Hello WBCN:

Picked you up fine tonight. Keep it up. We like you. Your wave length is low enough to bar interference.

Yours truly,
Carl P. Wagner,
3826 N. Hermitage Ave., Chicago.

Mrs. Oscar Long, 630 N. St. Louis ave., telephoned WBCN to tell how much she enjoys the programs broadcast from Southtown's new station.

"Not only is one good," she said, "but the longer you are on the air the better your programs are. I keep my dials constantly set on WBCN, although I have no difficulty tuning you out."

BANK HAS COOLIDGE LETTER ON THRIFT

Under the signature of President Calvin Coolidge there is in the window of the Peoples Stock Yards bank at 47th and Ashland, a letter on thrift that is being read with interest by passersby.

The statement, written at the request of A. T. Huizinga of the bank, reads as follows:

"The White House,
Washington,

"It is not so much what we earn today as what we save today that determines our position tomorrow. The people of past ages did not fail to work, oftentimes they put forth great effort, but what they produced they at once consumed. They did not get ahead. They had no progress.

"There came a time when they began to accumulate a surplus. From that hour civilization began to appear. The foundation of it all was thrift. On it was built character. It is the test of the power of self control. Out of self control by the individual grew the principle of self government by the people. But the basis of it all is thrift.

"No man is so poor that he can not begin to be thrifty. No man is so rich that he does not need to be thrifty. The margin between success and failure, between a respectable place in life and comparative oblivion is very narrow. It is measured by a single word—thrift. The man who saves is the man who will win.

CALVIN COOLIDGE."

B. L. A. TO REST DURING THE HOLIDAYS; LAST MEET A SUCCESS

NEW TECHNICAL BOARD ANNOUNCED; INCLUDES TEN OF LEADING EXPERTS.

On account of the Christmas holiday season there will be no open meeting of the Broadcast Listeners' association until the first Wednesday in January, affording the membership and officers their first real rest in nine months, during which time sessions were held every week.

The "vacation" also will enable the heads of the association to give more consideration to tentative plans for addition of several new and valuable features to the organization's service for the radio fan.

Many Artists Help Out

On December 10, the date of the association's last meeting, Harry "Dream Daddy" Davis, Edna Salamon, Gail Bondell, James C. Darby, Jimmy Cairns, Irwin Balarsky, Walter Peterson and Dave Nudelman, all of them prominent radio artists, regaled B. L. A. members and others with a program that was exceptional for even the B. L. A.

W. A. Hitchcock of a Newark, N. J., radio firm was in charge of the technical end of the bill and dwelt upon two subjects principally—perfect reception and elimination of interference. He illustrated his talk with demonstrations of equipment, which easily cut through WBCN and brought in the other Chicago stations, Mooseheart, Elgin, and many more distant points.

"This demonstration," said F. H. McDonald, president of the Listeners' association, "proves that stations really do not interfere with each other, but that the fault lies with the listeners themselves—either their sets are not properly constructed, or they do not understand the operation of same."

New Board Complete

The makeup of the new B. L. A. technical board has been announced as follows: A. J. Carter of the Carter Radio company; Herbert H. Frost, head of the Frost radio manufacturing firm; E. T. Flewelling, radio engineer and inventor; Stephen Gilchrist, radio editor of the Chicago Tribune; Frank E. Goodnow, electrical engineer for the Public Service company; Carl Pfanstiehl, of the Pfanstiehl Radio Service company; A. F. Parkhurst, member of the A. I. E. E. & I. R. E.; Frank Reichmann, of the Reichmann company; E. N. Rauland, of the Rauland Mfg. company; M. H. Romberg, electrical engineer, University of Chicago; William J. Schnell of the Electrical Research Laboratories.

CIRCULATION MAN KEEPS NEW CAR 6 HOURS

Six hours was the length of time that Walter J. Carmichael, circulation manager of the Economist, enjoyed the use of his new Jewett car Wednesday of last week. When found by police, at 52nd and Shields, and returned to him Monday it was no longer new, but almost a complete wreck.

The machine was delivered to him at his office, 730 W. 65th st., late in the afternoon, and the same evening it was stolen from in front of a friend's home at 159 W. 72nd st. The car is—or perhaps, better, was—a sport model, painted blue, with a glass winter inclosure.

EARLY CHICAGO LAWN RESIDENT TO OBSERVE HER 99TH BIRTHDAY

MRS. LUCINDA A. BLODGETT, IN EXCELLENT HEALTH, FINDS MUCH TO ENJOY IN LIFE

Still taking an active interest in the events of the day through her daily reading of newspapers, magazines, and books, Mrs. Lucinda A. Blodgett, 3404 W. 63rd pl., will celebrate her ninety-ninth birthday on Saturday, December 20. She "thanks the Lord that I have been allowed to live so long, but do not feel that I should like to live my life over.

"I have made many mistakes in my life," she said with a little laugh. "I know that if I were to live my life over I would not make those same mistakes again, but I have made no criminal mistakes that I would like to atone for in another existence."

Mrs. Blodgett regrets her lack of educational opportunities, but she feels that old folks should not blame their ignorance upon the fact that they did not have the advantages that are offered today.

"Read and you will know," is her motto. "Love history, and always attempt to read good books," is her advice.

She is very fond of the radio and listens in on the sermons of the Lawndale M. E. church, of which she is a charter member. Of late she has been unable to attend church regularly because of difficulty in walking.

MRS. LUCINDA A. BLODGETT

"I like to ride in automobiles," she said, as she continued to sew, rock, and talk. "I have ridden on an elephant, behind oxen, behind horses, in automobiles, but never in an airplane. I don't want to go up in an airplane. When I go up I want to stay up forever and never return to the earth."

Lewis county, in New York state, was the birthplace of Mrs. Blodgett. She is one of a family of seventeen, and had nine own brothers and sisters, and eight half brothers and sisters. She came to Chicago in 1882 at the age of 58 years, and has lived with her daughter at 3404 W. 63rd pl. ever since that time. She is one of Chicago Lawn's earliest settlers.

She lives with her one daughter, Mrs. L. F. Cravener, and her one son, Melvin O. Blodgett. There is one grandchild, Mrs. W. C. Mongold, of Fayette, Iowa, and two great-grandchildren.

Her birthday will be celebrated very quietly at home. She usually has quite a number of callers on her anniversary. Her many friends and acquaintances enjoy a reminiscent chat with her at such a time. She is in good health, looks many years younger than she is, talks glibly, and hears very well considering her age.

That Boston Joke

A number of boys were playing baseball in a vacant lot in Boston, when the ball crashed through the window of an adjacent house. The wrathful householder stormed out in pursuit of the guilty ones. He managed to capture one spectacled, slow-footed youth.

"I didn't do it, mister! I wasn't playing with them," the lad panted.

"Then what did you run for?" roared the injured man.

"I—I'm afraid that I was a victim of the prevailing mob hysteria, sir."—Country Gentleman.

The Radio Receiver Without Batteries

DYNERGY is the new and incomparable Radio Receiver that operates without batteries. The power for operating this dependable set is obtained by simply plugging into an ordinary lighting fixture or wall socket. Can be successfully operated in any home that is wired with a lighting system using 110 volts. The troublesome and expensive A, B and C batteries are entirely eliminated where the DYNERGY is employed for reception.

The DYNERGY is a complete Radio Receiver. Combined with these new radio and electrical circuits are two stages of condenser tuned radio frequency amplification, a detector, and two stages of audio frequency amplification, which form a complete and desirable receiver for distant reception. It possesses the combination of sensitivity, selectivity, volume and undistorted clarity of tone. Costs less than one-half cent per hour for operation.

FROM QUEEN FASHION'S COURT

Copyright, 1924, by Public Ledger Company

Paris, Dec. 1.—The bobbed and shingled mode having swept whole continents like an epidemic, is it any wonder that one hears from time to time the question, "Where did it all start?"

I do not actually state that the mode was originated by Premet, for I believe it was suggested by a much discussed book. But in a frock of the same name, "La Garconne," Premet presented an idea to the fashion world which was seized and acted upon with mercurial swiftness. This trim little frock with its boy-like collar and cuffs, its smart belt and easy widths, suggested at once, a certain type—the short-haired, active roguish tomboy who was ready to romp with her brothers and enjoy it.

Such success did Premet have with this model that this house is loth to abandon it altogether, but serves it up in slightly different form.

Numerous little frocks can be chosen from the collection with any form of the boyish collar from the youthful Peter Pan to the more mature shirt collar. A tiny Eton adorns the lefthand frock pictured. It is in a yellowish pink brocaded crepe to match the underneath part of the frock. The model itself is in a many-squared tissue and is bound with satin of the same shade.

An exceptionally attractive little model in black and white is the other frock. At wrists, waist and hem, ribbons make clever adornment. Black "grain de poudre"—a very finely grained silk—is the favored tissue. A chic touch is the use of white (the same weave) for the under collar and jabot.

YOUR HOME'S INTERIOR

(What decorating problem troubles you? Is it the curtaining of an ill-proportioned window or the placing of a tapestry? Refer your perplexities to the conductor of this column whose attention will be promptly given them.

THE ENTRANCE HALL

G. M. Tencate

Since the entrance hall is the first part of your home that a stranger sees, it is but natural that his impression of the dwelling will be gained from the effect of this section of the house, and it is that idea of the place that will remain with him.

First impressions are oftimes determining factors in friendships and should be as pleasant as possible. The furnishings of the hall are the keynote to the tastes of the occupants of the house, hence are important.

Cheer and hospitality should greet the newcomer. Usually an entrance door has a glass to be curtained. Use a fine neutral net drawn taut on top and bottom rods, allowing about 75 percent for fullness to give soft folds.

Carpet the floor with an Oriental rug, if possible. These have bright color motifs which will add to the size of the hall. Satisfactory imitations of eastern rugs are on the market today and substitute effectively for the genuine rug, if it is beyond your purse.

Few pieces of furniture are required for the entrance. A writing desk is appropriate. A colonial armchair may be placed at each side. The console table used with a mirror is desirable if the guest closet in the hall has no glass in its door. A mirror in the hallway seems indispensable. It adds size and serves to give milady a final glance at her costume before leaving the house or entering the living room. If a mirror is not placed above a console table, hang a tapestry. The card tray on the table should be simple.

The entrance may be lighted by a wrought-iron lantern obtainable at department stores, high class hardware shops, or, if one wishes a more distinctive model, at an antique shop.

SKATERS MUST FORM CLUB TO ENTER MEETS

Ice skaters who wish to compete from Ogden Park must form a club with members registered in the Western Skating association to be eligible for participation in sanctioned meets, Daniel Russell, director, has announced.

Blanks are sent to him frequently for entries in ice skating contests of the near future. Skaters are urged to sign at once for a club that Ogden Park may be represented at the winter's meets. These have previously been held on the north and northwest side. Director Russell is ambitious to have his park the scene of an ice skating tourney this year.

NEATNESS: ITS RELATION TO BEAUTY

A princess (so the story goes) showed a moss rose to the king, and the king, a very wise man, put beauty in its place while he exalted the rose. "It is more than beautiful," he said; "it is neat."

It took a king in those days to make a bon mot like that and get away with it; but times change, and we moderns do not take kings' talk for granted. We would correct the statement and tell him that no rivalry between beauty and neatness now exists. In fact, nowadays it is a common thing to be both neatly beautiful and beautifully neat.

We hear everywhere a new word applied to smartness—it is "sleek" they say now of hair and clothes and hats. And this word seems to carry an implication of finish, of artistry and of neatness.

The history of the race repeats itself for each of us as we grow older. Dirty faces are sometimes adorable at 6. Freckles are amusing at 10. A map of disorderly hair is ingenuous at 14, or other disorders of dress are known to get by at a tender age. But, sad to say, age sets the casual of its charm. What passes for cute at 16 is messy at 30 and slovenly at 50.

One of the things that is hard to face, especially if you have been a vivacious girl, is that the age of flapperism passes. Hearts may becomingly stay young forever, but not clothes, conversation nor heads of hair. It's wrong to tote into the fifties the coiffure of your teens if you've left your young face behind you. Smoothly parted hair may be drawn into a flat knot in the back, or the French twist may be more suitable to your type.

Older women's hair is often more becoming done up off the neck. As soon as the neck becomes fatter or you take on an extra chin or two, the low knot emphasizes it. Never dress your hair with many rolls or frizzes—and never twist it up in a sloppy or casual "disarrangement." Use plenty of pins and a hair net, for at this age "sleek" is the watchword of your appearance.

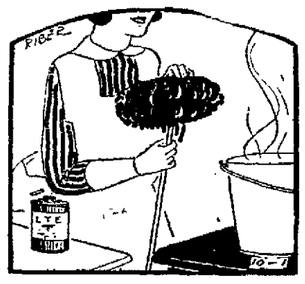
We are much like houses. When a house is new it needs little attention, but it is surprising how quickly things begin to give out and little repairs are needed here and there. Let them go and your property depreciates and runs down. It is the same with us—for a few years we go along on the initial momentum of youth. Then things begin to give out and get straggly and it is repair time.

Necks either get thin and scrawny or else they get a little roll of fat at the back and an extra chin in front. In either case exercise is the remedy to fill up the contour or reduce fat spots. Cream will fatten up the thin neck and astringents will tighten up loose muscles and the grimy look which is usually acquired from fur collars will come off if properly approached. So, you see, necks can be both neat and beautiful.

Faces are a little different. There's no use in bluffing, for some faces just cannot be made beautiful. But they can all be neat. They can avoid blotchy complexions by being careful of the digestion and avoid blackheads by proper care. Correct cleansing and powdering will go a long way toward a neat-appearing face. The over grooming of eyebrows is not good form, but wild and irregular hairs should be removed with tweezers so as to present a pleasing ensemble.

The hands come in for their measure of shame or credit to a neat appearance. Keep them soft and white by the constant use of a good hand lotion. No matter how young your face looks, if your hands are not well preserved they will shout your age to the world at large. Take particular care of your nails. Moisten them nightly with good cuticle oil or cream to keep them soft and keep the cuticle pushed back.

Summing up the situation, I would say that if both beauty and neatness were impossible to achieve I should choose neatness, for much beauty lies therein, and in order to be really beautiful it is necessary to be really neat.



To Renovate a Dust Mop

Place a large tablespoonful of concentrated lye in a bucket of water. Bring it to a boil. Place the mop in the pail. Allow the solution to boil for five or ten minutes. Rinse well in clear hot water. It will be like new. THE HOUSEWIFE.

Real English Plum Pudding

From England, the land of the yuletide plum pudding, comes this formula. Ancestors of the contributor's husband had used it for many years in England, and she herself has made her Christmas puddings from it consistently.

One and one-quarter pounds seedless raisins, 1 pound currants, 1 pound fine sugar, 8 eggs, 3 ounces mixed candied peel, rind of 1 lemon, ¼ ounce shredded almonds, ⅛ pint brandy or cider, ½ ounce nutmeg and cinnamon, 1 pound suet and 1 teaspoon baking powder. Cut raisins (do not chop), mix all ingredients together, moisten with the eggs, which should be well beaten, then stir in brandy or cider. Add enough flour to make the spoon stand up. Boil 8 hours.—Mrs. Charles Leonard, 6409 Yale ave.

Date Sticks

These require 1 cup sifted flour, 1/8 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 cup sugar, 2 level teaspoons baking powder, 1 tablespoon milk or cream, 2 cups stoned, chopped dates, 1 cup coarsely chopped walnut meats, 2 eggs and powdered sugar to cover when baked.

Cream butter and sugar, add milk and beaten eggs, then the dry ingredients and chopped dates and walnut meats. With a knife spread this batter about 1/3 inch thick in a shallow greased pan. Bake in a moderate oven about 25 minutes. While still hot cut in long slices about 1 inch wide and roll in powdered sugar.—Mrs. E. R. Lawton, 7506 Parnell ave.

Pork Cake

This pork cake or economical fruit cake requires ¾ pound fat salt pork which has been put through a meat grinder, 1 pint hot coffee, 2 cups brown sugar, 1 cup molasses, 5 cups flour, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1 teaspoon cloves, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 pound seeded raisins, 1 cup chopped nut meats, 1 cup chopped citron, 2 eggs.

Pour the hot coffee over the pork, then add molasses and sugar. When cool add the eggs. Mix the fruits with a little of the flour and sift the remaining flour, spices and soda three times. Mix all ingredients and bake in a moderate oven about 1 hour. Line cake pan with heavy oiled paper.—Martha Rhein, 7819 Aberdeen st.

Apple Dainty

Select required number medium sized cooking apples. Wash, peel and core. If desired, they may be left whole or sliced crosswise into three thick slices. Dissolve 1 cup cinnamon drops in 1 cup boiling water. Into the boiling syrup drop apples. To avoid breaking while cooking, do not crowd the fruit. Boil until tender, turning frequently. Remove from syrup and when cold serve on slice of angel food or plain sponge cake. Top with whipped cream and sprinkle with nut meats. This may also be served as a dainty relish rather than as dessert.—Mrs. Arthur Guillaudeu, 6536 Campbell ave.

Fruit Cookies

Mix 10 eggs (save whites of 2 eggs to spread over cookies before placing in oven), 1 cup of nuts, preferably almonds, 2 pounds sugar, 5 cents' worth of citron, 2 or 3 cups raisins, grated rind and juice of 1 lemon, 1 teaspoon each of nutmeg, cinnamon, cloves and allspice, 4 teaspoons baking powder and flour enough to roll. Cut and spread with thin coating of beaten white of egg.—Alma B. Wilson, 6201 Green st.

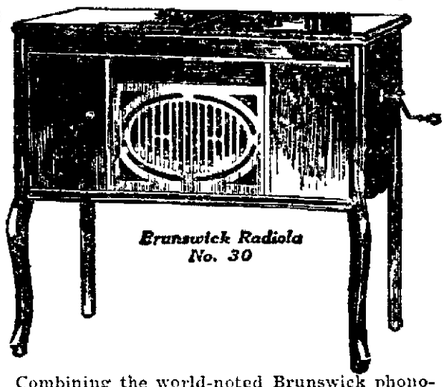
Ware Neutrodyne Receivers
$65.00

The selectivity of the Ware Neutrodyne enables the operator to tune in any desired local station and exclude the others. It has a remarkable degree of sensitivity, and will bring in distant stations clearly and distinctly. After you once record the setting of the right-hand dial for any particular station, that station may always be tuned in at the same setting.

Brunswick



Brunswick Radiola No. 30

Combining the world-noted Brunswick phonograph with the Radiola III—a two-tube regenerative set operated with dry batteries. Space allows for additional Radiola balanced amplifier, thus raising receiving capacity to four-tube set. A feature of this receiver is the selective tuning adjustment which enables the operator to select one of a group of local stations without overlapping..... $190.00

DYNERGY

The 5-tube set that needs no batteries—simply attach to any electric light socket.

In entirely eliminating all batteries the DYNERGY RECEIVER fundamentally and radically differs from all other radio apparatus now before the public.

The Dynergy Receiver has no parts which need replacement or which wear out. Once installed, it is guaranteed for years, and truly expresses the phrase, "First cost, last cost." It is fool-proof, compact, practically without heat, and its price can easily compare with other receivers now on the market. In quality it is incomparable. Its electrical efficiency is such that when operated constantly the cost is less than one-half cent per hour. The replacement cost to keep the receiver functioning is limited only to vacuum and rectifier tubes, which with ordinary use should last from one and one-half to two years. Remarkable, also, is the fact that not only is there an eradication of all hums and noises, but there is also the eradication of tube noises and the disagreeable battery crackles.

TWO BIG FIRES CAUSE $100,000 LOSS IN WEEK

Forty Cars Burn in Auburn Garage; Zion Church Is Gutted

More than forty automobiles were destroyed in a fire in the Auburn garage, a one-story brick structure at 7643 Halsted st., at 2 o'clock Saturday morning, the second big fire in the district in a week. The loss is estimated at $91,000.

The blaze started in the front of the garage, while John Evans, 34, colored watchman, was washing cars at the back. The cause has not been determined.

Evans gave the alarm, which was answered by Engine company 54. The fire burned fiercely for two and one-half hours before it was under control. Assistant Fire Marshal James Costin sent in a 2-11 alarm for additional equipment.

The building was owned by Mrs. James Ward, 7525 Halsted st. Mr. and Mrs. Ward had operated a garage there until about two months ago, when they sold the business to George May, 7840 Marshfield ave.

Gasoline Tank Explodes

A big gasoline tank used by the garage exploded, hurling blazing oil and gasoline soaked embers into the air, endangering the firemen. Fed by the oil and gasoline from the blazing automobiles, and fanned by a strong wind, the flames threatened nearby buildings.

The business was not fully covered by insurance, though the majority of the cars were insured. The loss on the structure amounted to approximately $35,000 of equipment, $6,000, and the value of the cars destroyed was $50,000.

Believed Incendiary Origin

Fire, believed to be of incendiary origin, early Tuesday morning of last week caused damage estimated at nearly $10,000 in the Mt. Zion English Evangelical Lutheran church, 81st and May sts. The chancel of the church was gutted, the organ and two pianos were damaged, stained glass windows on one side of the building were broken and, in spite of the efforts of the Fire Insurance patrol, smoke and water caused considerable loss.

The blaze had gained great headway when it was discovered. Samuel Jensen, the 9 year old son of the Rev. Frank E. Jensen, the church's pastor, saw smoke pouring from the edifice when he looked out of the window of the parsonage at 1114 W. 81st st. shortly after 7 o'clock. The boy summoned his father, who called the fire department.

The phone in the parsonage was temporarily disconnected, and several minutes were lost before the call was made in a neighboring house.

Six Companies Called

Six engine companies answered the call and worked for nearly four hours before the flames were extinguished.

No condition within the building was discovered that could have caused the fire, according to the Rev. Mr. Jensen, who believes that the church was set ablaze.

"I was the last person to leave the building before the fire was discovered," he said. "I had met three other men in the church Monday evening, and we left the building at 9 o'clock. There had been no smoking in the church, and when I left the steam plant was in good condition. The fire was certainly not caused by an overheated boiler, because after the fire paper that was near the heating plant was not even scorched. A careful examination of the wiring showed no evidence that there was any defect. The janitor had not been in the building since 5 o'clock Monday afternoon.

"There is something mysterious about the fire," declared the pastor, "especially since it came at this season when the church is so much in use."

Insurance covered the loss on the building, but not the damage to the sacramental vessels, the vestments and the books and fixtures in the pastor's study. Temporary repairs have been made in order that the church could be used Sunday morning. Lack of lights made it necessary to dispense with the evening services this week, but it is expected that needed electrical work will be done in time for the Christmas festival December 23 and the early Christmas morning services.

Work on the permanent repairs will start after the first of the year, and on the completion rededication services will be held before the Lenten season.

MORAVA PLANT TAKEN OVER BY McCLINTIC-MARSHALL COMPANY

GRESHAM STRUCTURAL STEEL CONCERN IN HANDS OF LARGEST INDEPENDENT INTERESTS

The Morava Construction company's plant at 85th st. and Stewart ave. was taken over Wednesday, December 10, by the McClintic-Marshall company of Pittsburgh and will be operated as the Morava works of the McClintic-Marshall company.

The company is the largest independent manufacturer and erector of structural steel buildings and bridges in the country. No improvements will be made for the present in the plant, and it will continue operation with its present equipment.

Paul Willis, formerly president of the Kenwood Bridge company, which was also taken over by the McClintic-Marshall company, will be in charge of the operations of the concern in the Chicago district as vice-president and manager. A. J. T. Bennett, secretary and engineer of the Kenwood company, will continue in the capacity of contracting engineer.

The company now has ten fabricating shops located advantageously to serve the eastern, central, and western markets. These shops have a combined capacity of about 400,000 tons of structural steel and plate work per annum. The plant recently purchased from the Morava company covers nearly ten acres and employs about 250 people.

Wensel Morava, 4846 Kenwood ave., president of the Morava Construction company, who has been in the structural steel business for many years, will retire from active business.

The plant and business of the Kenwood Bridge company, 7749 Dante ave., which was also purchased, will be called the Kenwood works of the McClintic-Marshall company.

McCullough Legion Installs New Officers

—Economist Photo

A sumptuous meal, good speakers, and excellent entertainment combined to make the installation dinner dance of Leroy A. McCullough Post 123, American Legion, held Wednesday evening, December 110, at the College cafe, a most enjoyable affair.

This group, taken by the Economist photographerafter the dinner, shows, left to right: Dr. Emil Schlageter, senior vice-commander; John Huguelet, commander; John P. Clancy, junior vice-commander; John P. Sink, adjutant and finance officer; Joseph A. Schmitz, past commander; John C. McCullough, trustee; and Harry M. Clark, past grand Chief de Gare, of State of Iowa, one of the speakers.

PROPOSE TO HAVE MEETINGS MONTHLY ONLY. POST WILL DECIDE FRIDAY NIGHT

The new executive committee for 1925 of Englewood Post No. 61, American Legion, met at the office of Commander Walter E. Troesch, Thursday evening to elect a chairman and transact business. Past Commander C. R. Edrington was made chairman.

Recommended for ratification of the post was the proposal that the post hold one regular meeting per month instead of two as has been the custom for years.

The executive committee will meet on regular meeting nights at 7:30, just preceding the post meetings.

The regular meeting of the post will be held on the first Friday of the month with the exception of the coming Friday evening, when the regular meeting will be held as usual.

The tickets for the Washington Birthday annual banquet are in the hands of post members now and early report on all tickets has been asked for by the committee chairman.

A general revision of the post constitution has been drafted and will be voted on by the membership Friday night.

In response to requests that have been received from fifteen different ex-service men, not now members of the Legion, some of whom were disabled in the war, several changes have been made in requirements for membership. Sponsors for candidates need not be members of the post, if they are well known citizens of the community. Obligation will admit candidates to full membership and initiation will be waived for thirty days. Disabled veterans of the World War are not—this, however, is not a new regulation—assessed full rates for post membership.

Mrs. Edwin S. Galusha, 7234 Harvard ave., who has been ill for the past week with the grippe, is recovering.

Mrs. Minnie Horner and family, 7311 Perry ave., drove to Joliet, Ill., on Sunday, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jay G. Aires and family.

"Billy" Bryan Speaks Here

—Economist Photo

At right, William Jennings Bryan and beside him, Kneeland Ball, president of the Englewood Presbyterian Men's association, under the auspices of which the well-known Nebraskan spoke in Southtown Friday.

BRYAN REITERATES EVOLUTION OPPOSITION FOR LOCAL AUDIENCE

ENGLEWOOD PRESBYTERIAN MEN'S ASSN. BRINGS NOTED NEBRASKAN TO SOUTHTOWN

Religion is the greatest subject there is. It is the only subject that one can talk on with freedom when one is away from home, so maintained William Jennings Bryan before a capacity audience in the Englewood Presbyterian church, 61th st. and Yale ave., Thursday evening.

Mr. Bryan, here to attend the national Presbyterian conference that closed Friday after a four-day session at the Fourth Presbyterian church, spoke under the auspices of the Men's association of the Englewood church and was introduced by Kneeland Ball, president of the association. The subject of the talk was "It Is Written," a defense of religion.

"The science of how to live is the most important science of all. It is infinitely more important that a Christian child should know 'The Rock of Ages' than that he know the ages of rocks," said the speaker.

"The greatest words in the world are the three words 'It Is Written.' The Christian has nothing in defense of Christianity except what is written in the Bible. There is no way of finding out about God except in the Bible. Most of those attempting to find God in a study of nature lose God entirely. The moment a man discards the Bible he discards Christ.

"Just because people can't understand a thing isn't saying that it can't be so. If a man refused to eat everything he didn't understand he would die of starvation, but mystery doesn't trouble one in the dining room. It is only in the church that we doubt. Until you can explain a watermelon don't be too sure that you can set limits to the powers of the Almighty and say just how or why he does things. A God that can make a world can do anything that he wants to with it.

"Evolution is the poison that is polluting the present-day world," contended Mr. Bryan. "The men who are doing the harm are the men in the church who are preaching this doctrine to the people. Some of the evolutionists say that you are an ignoramous if you don't believe as they do. If people don't stop calling me an ignoramous I'll have my full name printed on cards and put back of it all the seven LL.D.s I possess. I never boast about my college degrees, but I will challenge any son of an ape to match cards with me.

"Give science the truth and it is invincible, but let a scientist cut loose from the facts and use guess work and you have no truth. I object to a scientist putting guesses in place of God's 'It is Writ'en.' It has never been proved that anything has changed and it is asking too much of the credulity of man to believe that everything has changed."

Mr. Bryan concluded his speech by objecting to men drawing pay from Christian parents and teaching their children such "tommyrot as evolution."

"No, I'm her brother by refusal."—Columbia Jester.

CHILDREN'S CHORUS TO SING CHRISTMAS SONGS AT OGDEN PARK

VARIOUS GROUPS TO CELEBRATE HOLIDAYS WITH PARTIES AND PROGRAMS

Christmas will be celebrated at Ogden park fieldhouse with several programs, one of which will be given by the children's chorus of the Civic Music association, at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Vocal solos will be "Infant So Gentle," by Mary Ward, and a song by Franklin Soukup. The children's chorus will sing "The First Noel," "When the Crimson Sun Had Set" (Westminster Crimes), "Gean Bambino," "Pietro-a-Jon," sung with Jay Cutter, and "Joyful Bells," "Silent Night," and "Christmas."

Recitations will consist of "Santa Claus and the Mouse," by Catherine Mulcahy; "Gretchen of the Wooden Shoe," by Ruth Glascott, and "Why the Chimes Ring," by Dorothy O'Connor. Two violin numbers are included in the program. The public is invited.

Children of the gymnasium and organized classes will hold their annual Christmas party at the fieldhouse the afternoon of December 27. They will celebrate their progress in group work at the park and the record they have made in the various contests. Ogden park continues to hold the three South Park supremacy banners, leading its nearest rival, Cornell sq., by 1,500 points. Palmer sq. is third.

Harry DeShon's "Girls' Revue" will stage a program at the Ogden park fieldhouse at 8 o'clock Friday evening. The following girls will have parts: Harriet Gallagher, Marjorie McCartney, Ethel Hull, Edith Berg, Peggy Price, Babe Abram and Elsie Kubus. The specialties will include a clog dance by Miss Price, toe dances by Miss Gallagher and Marjorie McCartney, "Famous Frisco" by Miss Abram and a Bowery number by Miss Berg and Miss Kubus. Children will not be admitted without their parents.

NORMAL TO DEBATE ON JAP RESTRICTIONS

The debating team of Chicago Normal college is preparing for its first inter-collegiate debate with Crane Junior college in January. The subject will be the restriction of Japanese immigration, but the exact date has not been chosen nor have the affirmative and negative sides been assigned. Tryouts conducted by the newly formed debating club will be held this week.

NOT MUCH ON LOOKS BUT "STUB" POPULAR

Practically every engine house of the Chicago Fire Department has some sort of pet, and Engine Company 51, at 6345 Wentworth ave., is not to be outdone.

Its mascot is Stub.

Stub is a wee, dirty, little white dog without pedigree or history. It is not her fault—she couldn't pick her ancestory for blue bloodedness, and as she is only four months old, she hasn't been able to make much history.

But the stump of her close cropped tail, has wagged its way into the hearts of the fireman. She isn't prety, but Stub is a perfect lady and perfect ladies are never ugly. But just the same, if she ever went unescorted down the street, and the dog catcher should happen along, she'd have to run for it.

Stub does her bit without shirking around the station. She eats with the firemen, sleeps when they do, and goes to fires when the gong sounds. No one needs to tell her to get on the truck—she is there before the first fireman.

"She's just a youngster," Battalion Chief Charles J. Berkery said, "and when she's a little older, we'll have her climbing ladders, and doing all the things a real fire laddie does."

WATCH HAMILTON PARK FOR MORON

Englewood police are stationed in the vicinity of Hamilton park in an attempt to apprehend a moron who tried to attack Miss Loretta Hickstein, 7418 Parnell ave., Sunday afternoon as she was walking through the park. He seized her, only to flee when she screamed for assistance. Descriptions of her assailant were given to the police, and from their investigations they learned that he frequents the park regularly.

HOPE CHURCH HAS NEW MUSIC DIRECTOR

August Heck

Activities of August Heck, the new musical director of Hope Evangelical Lutheran church, 64th st. and Washtenaw ave., will open with a program to be given at 8 o'clock Christmas eve, consisting of children's carols and Yule songs by a mixed chorus.

Mr. Heck formally assumes charge of his work January 1. He has made a reputation as a musical critic and before coming here was affiliated with the symphony orchestra of Dallas, Texas. He was also organist for Trinity Lutheran church of that city.

His preparation for a musical career consists of four years' study at the Missouri Conservatory of Music, from which he received diplomas for piano, harmony, counter-point, cannon and fugue. He was enrolled as a teacher there after his first year of study, and also directed the Central Wesleyan college band for two years. He studied the French horn and conducted classes in piano and has been the organist for Evangelical Lutheran churches in St. Louis.

Formerly H. Prochl was in charge of music at Hope church. He resigned recently. Mr. Heck is making his home with the Rev. John A. Leimer at 6347 Washtenaw ave. He has a studio at 218 S. Wabash ave.

MUSICAL INTERESTS HELP IN SOLVING THE "BOY PROBLEM"

By W. M. Mason

You seldom hear of a "girl problem." By nature the girl clings to the fireside, lacks the aggressive urge, and submits to parental restraint. But the boy is a different proposition. The home is but a place to eat and sleep; he hardly takes the time to hang up his hat.

And mother worries and scolds while father, remembering, perhaps, his own tender years, says nothing.

The parental attitude is wrong. The boy is just as sensitive as the girl, except that his emotions are more rugged. His sense of honor is as strong as his sister's sense of modesty. Fidelity, ambition and attainment beat large in a boy's heart. If you can detect these qualities and guide them along right ways you are a fortunate parent and you will discover a different boy.

Music is one of your best bets. Do not doubt for a moment that your boy lacks musical feeling. He has as much as the girl; his voice is just as musical and his ability to play any instrument is as great as his sister's. Music is a man's art. The greatest masters of piano, violin, organ, band, orchestra, and composition are men. How long will you close your eyes to this fact?

Name a great outstanding artist in any musical field that is a woman. Hurry and name one. Yes, there are a few, but the names that come to your mind are those of men. Elman, Kreisler, Heifetz, Paderewski, Sousa, Stock, ad infinitum.

You worry about the company your boy keeps; the pool rooms, movies and dance halls where he spends his nights. He does these things for want of something better. Had you started him when he was in knee breeches on a drum or horn his interests would be different now. You treated the matter lightly; perhaps ridiculed the idea when he hinted at it. You may have begrudged the price of an instrument or thought it a waste of time.

Your boy would like to join his school orchestra or the Scouts band, but he has no instrument. This is your opportunity. What are you going to do about it? The Christmas time is here, a fine time to give this matter decisive attention. Get the boy a cornet, a trombine, a clarinet or a flute. It may change his entire outlook on things. With the possession of a fine instrument all his own, he would have a new interest. New friendships will follow, and a refining culture found only in the arts will reshape the lad's line of thinking. There are some things that to delay or treat with indifference is fatal. Your boy's future is one. Its a wise father that studies his son.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC AT ENGLEWOOD CHURCH

Sunday evening, December 21, at 7:30 p. m., the choir of the First Presbyterian Church of Englewood, 64th st. and Yale ave., will give a service of music and will be assisted by the following soloists: Happye West, soprano; Eulah Connor, contralto; J. Raymond Chittick, baritone; Audrey Call, violinist. All are invited to attend.

The White Christmas service will be given by the Englewood First Presbyterian Sunday school on Tuesday evening, December 23, at 7:45 o'clock. Mrs. Venice Biglow Jackson, a noted reader, will give the story.

CHICAGO QUARTETTE HONORS H. HORNSTEIN

H. H. Hornstein, 6742 Normal blvd., for twenty years a singer in Englewood, was the guest of honor at a banquet tendered him Saturday by the Chicago quartette of which he is a member, at the Campus Court cafe.

He and his family are moving to Meadeville, Pa., where he will engage in the practice of law with an uncle. Mrs. Hornstein left a week ago for their new home. For the past four years, Mr. Hornstein has been a member of the Englewood Christian church and was a baritone singer in its double quartet.

RICHARD GUDERYAHN'S PUPILS APPEAR IN RECITAL

OPERETTA NEW YEAR'S EVE AT NORMAL BAPTIST CHURCH

"Why the Chimes Rang" is the name of the operetta which the children of the Normal Park Baptist church, 70th and Stewart, will give New Year's eve, under the leadership of Martha Huber. There will be songs and dances.

DREXEL PARK CHOIR TO PRESENT CANTATA

Mrs. Catherine Utesch is arranging a Christmas pageant, "The Light of Ages," by Ferris, to be presented at Drexel Park Presbyterian church, 64th st. and Marshfield ave., at 7:45 o'clock Sunday evening. Elaborate costumes to be worn by local artists when the "Passion Play" is given at the Auditorium in March, will be used by the cantata singers.

Robert Glennie will sing "The Comforter," and Ray Greener, "Voice in the Wilderness," in part one. "The Trembling King," part two, will be sung by Arthur Glennie. "Herod," and Robert Glennie, "The Messenger." Victor Neat, Ray Wilson and William Donaldson have the parts of the "Magi." Miss Louise Bergman will sing "Cydia." Victor Neat has the role of "Belshazzar."

"The Star of Bethlehem," part three, will be sung by Mrs. Utesch, "The Star." William Forbes will have the part of "Jehorah" and Miss Helen Wilke will take the part of "Phiba." Mr. Donaldson has been given the role of "A Jew." The quartet of Jews will consist of Miss Helen Wilke, Miss Dorothy Baldwin, D. Gray and Arthur Utesch. The part of "Zadish, a Prophetess," will be sung by Miss Louise Kuglin.

Singers in part four, "The Holy Family," will be Miss Vera Ely, "Mary," and Ray Greener, "Joseph." Miss Dorothy Baldwin, "The Angel." Robert Glennie, Ted Roseen, and Arthur Glennie will have shepherd parts. A large chorus will sing the finale. Miss Elva Layton will preside at the organ, assisted by Viola Marquardt, violinist.

STORY OF TINY TIM AND OLD SCROOGE TO BE DRAMATIZED

Dickens' "Christmas Carol" will be dramatized by the Pilgrim Congregational Sunday school at the church, 64th st. and Harvard ave., on Tuesday, December 23, at 8 p. m., under the direction of Ruth Griffith Holman. Everyone is invited to attend.

EARL EWERT NEW COMMANDER; MRS. TILLIE KOHN HEADS AUXILIARY

Officers of Christopher J. Burke Post No. 177 were elected for the coming year Monday, Dec. 8, at Prospect hall, 64th and Carpenter sts. The Ladies' auxiliary of the Post held its election there the same evening.

Post officers are Earl Ewert, commander; William Lindemann, senior vice commander; Ed. May, junior vice commander; Art Krooth, chaplain; Del Davidson, officer of the day; and Joseph Weichern, quartermaster. Mrs. Tillie Kohn will head the auxiliary. Mrs. Anna Ewert is the senior vice president; Mrs. Marie Ewert, junior vice president; Mrs. Francis Mojeska, chaplain; Mrs. Lillian Thornton, treasurer; Mrs. Anna Klaxson, secretary; Mrs. Marie Weichern, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Jennie Hurd, guard; Mrs. Martha Buro, historian; and Mrs. Helen Hartwick, conductress.

Following the election, a banquet was served in honor of the state and national officers. The guests were Mrs. Effie King, national president, Miss Helene Brannock, national historian, Mrs. Alma Young, national banner bearer, Mrs. Grace Habersank, state deputy and Mrs. Sadie master. The post was entertained Gill, state president, Commander Ernest Salensky presided as toastmaster also at the banquet.

ERECT ROSENZWEIG MEMORIAL

Mrs. Hyman Rosenzweig, 1057 W. 61st st., and her five sons and daughters erected a memorial stone at Mr. Rosenzweig's grave in Waldheim cemetery, Sunday. Mrs. B. L. Kohn, who lives with the mother, is the only daughter residing in Englewood. Until his death August 18, 1923, Mr. Rosenzweig conducted a meat market at 1057 W. 61st st. for thirty years.

SUSPECTS IN TAXICAB ROBBERY DISCHARGED

Passengers in the cab of Matthew Wagner, 818 W. 54th st., turned bandits when they were driven to 64th st. and Lowe ave. Wednesday night and robbed him of $10 and his cab. The machine was recovered later when it was found abandoned in front of 6820 Parnell ave.

The following day Wagner caused the arrest of two men whom he partially identified as his assailants. There was no evidence against them and Wagner was none too certain that they were the bandits. Arraigned before Judge Francis B. Algregetti Monday on disorderly conduct charges, they were discharged.

PHIL RAPPAPORT TAKES WELL EARNED VACATION

After a busy year Philip Rappaport, well known Englewood furrier, left Sunday for Mt. Clemens, Mich., where he plans to rest and recuperate for two weeks. Later Mr. Rappaport will make a trip to New York City to make purchases of furs and pelts from importers located there.

The fur shop at 335 W. 63rd st. will, in the meantime be managed by Mrs. Rappaport with the assistance of Dr. M. J. Swaritz, a relative, who will also superintend the redecoration and improvement of both the store and windows.

AIN'T THESE MODERN INVENTIONS WONDERFUL?

"REQUIRES ONLY two hands to operate" confides an Englewood radio advertiser. But what we are breathlessly eager to learn is—can it be seen from the back seat?

OFFER SPECIAL SHOWS FOR COMING HOLIDAYS

Lillian Hertz and her Moro Castle orchestra, offering up-to-date musical and song numbers, will come to the Englewood theater, 63rd and Halsted, for three days commencing Thursday afternoon. Bronson and Evans, two artists with an excellent reputation as fun-makers, are to be on the bill. Minetti and Catto, in songs and comedy, Jennings and Mack, in their new act, and others are to appear.

Val Harris and Vera Griffin in "The Sheik of '61," an episode of the last day of the cattle show in the town of Emptyville, are coming for fours days, starting Sunday.

Bill Dooley and company in "The Mis-fit Sailor," a comical presentation, Shannon's Playtime Frolic, and three other high class acts will contribute to a big time program.

Christmas will be celebrated at the Englewood with a holiday matinee and two reserved seat shows at night. Another special program on New Years eve will be offered, with two shows, the first one to start at 8 p. m. and the second will commence at 10 o'clock to allow the big fun finish to take place just in time to welcome in the New Year. To allow for this celebration the time on the New Years eve shows has been changed as stated above. Seats are now on sale for Christmas, New Years eve and New Years night.—Adv.

9-HOLE COURSE FOR MARQUETTE GOLFERS TO BE READY JUNE 1

UNFAVORABLE WEATHER DELAYS CONTRACTOR WITH EXCAVATING AND GRADING

Marquette Park will again be open for golf playing next spring, present plans indicate. By June 1 a nine-hole course will be ready for use, the fairways for ten holes having been seeded this fall. The lagoon may also be finished by that time, Edward L. Lahey, engineer for the South Park board, said last week.

Excavating and grading is being done by Frank J. McCaughey, whose contract calls for completion by next September. Had not extremely wet weather and other conditions interfered with progress, the work would have been done the first of this month. In spite of delays, he expects to finish in the spring or early summer unless work is entirely halted during the next few months.

Contracts for five cement bridges have been let to the Warner Construction company and work was begun last week. Two other bridges will be contracted for within a week, Mr. Lahey said, and all are expected to be finished by spring.

In the meantime, boys of the neighborhood are making good use of the park during cold weather by coasting down the toboggan slide which has been flooded south of Marquette rd. and Albany ave.

TROOP GETS GOOD TURN BANNER TWICE

The D. S. Wentworth Good Turn Scout banner for the month of November has been awarded to Troop 625, the second month in succession.

They won the honor because of their efforts in helping a deaf and dumb girl who was lost in the district reach her home. Last month they assisted a blind man who was lost. R. H. Nichols is the Scoutmaster.

OBITUARY

Miss Harriett Darcy

The death of Miss Harriett Darcy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Darcy, and sister of the late John C. Darcy, at her home, 7331 Carpenter st., December 11.

Miss Darcy was called away after a lingering illness and laid at rest in Holy Sepulchre cemetery, December 13.

Born in Chicago twenty-two years ago, her life was spent in Englewood. She attended the D. S. Wentworth school, and later Parker high, where she won innumerable friends.

James J. Redden

After having lived all his life in Englewood, James J. Redden, 31, 7012 Elizabeth st., died Wednesday evening, December 10.

He is survived by his wife, Pauline, nee Weissenstein, and two daughters, Marion, age 7 years, and Lorraine, 2 years. He was the brother of Mrs. Laura Lacey, 6611 Lowe ave., and Mrs. Margaret Toppel, 87th and Halsted sts.

High mass was celebrated at St. Brendan's church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Father Lyons officiated. Interment was made in the Mount Olivet cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Holmberg

Mrs. Mary Holmberg, 7337 Aberdeen st., died at the age of 63 at 10 o'clock Sunday evening, December 7, at her home. She had been ill for many years, and for the past year had been steadily growing worse.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, December 10, at the home, at 1:30 o'clock, and at the Grace Lutheran church, 70th st. and Union ave., at 2 p. m. The Rev. C. E. Hoffsten conducted the services. Interment was made in Mount Greenwood cemetery.

She is survived by her husband, Frank, four sons, Henry, Elmer, Oscar and Albin, and one daughter, Mrs. Helga Gawne.

Mrs. Gertrude Olson

Mrs. Gertrude Christine Olson died at the age of 89 years Wednesday evening, December 10, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Emmons, 7415 Harvard ave. She was one of Englewood's earliest settlers and has lived in the community for thirty-three years.

Her death was caused by hardening of the arteries, due to pneumonia and complications from which she has been seriously ill for several weeks.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence on Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The body was sent to Gibson City, Ill., where services were held at 1:30 o'clock on Friday, and the interment was made in the Gibson City cemetery.

Helen Peterson

The funeral of Helen Hilma Louise Peterson was held at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at her home, 5737 Emerald ave. Services were held at the Bethel Lutheran church, 62nd and Peoria sts., at 2 o'clock. The Rev. A. P. Fors officiated.

The deceased was 25 years of age and had lived in Englewood practically all her life. She had attended the Dewey school, and the Englewood high school. She had been ill with tuberculosis of the lungs for several years.

Interment was made in the Oak Woods cemetery. The survivors are her father, Elof Peterson, and one brother, Sherman E. Peterson.

Isaac J. Fultz

Isaac J. Fultz, 6528 Harvard ave., died at his home Thursday, December 11, at the age of 70 years. He was a former resident of Beverly Hills and had only lived in Englewood about seven years.

He is survived by his wife, Emma, and one daughter, Mrs. Roy Berg, 140 W. 70th pl. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. O. W. Taylor, of the Auburn Park M. E. church, at the Lain chapel, 63rd st. and Harvard ave., at 2:30 o'clock Saturday, December 13.

The services were under the auspices of the Normal Park Masonic Lodge, No. 797, A. F. & A. M. Interment was made in the Mt. Greenwood cemetery.

A DOUBLE SERVICE

The Southtown Economist offers you a ready market for anything you care to buy or sell, whether it be real estate clothing, automobiles or what not. A little two-line ad that costs you but a few cents immediately places your wants or merchandise before thousands of readers right here in your own locality.

The very nearness of the market makes it easier to stimulate the sale or satisfy the desire.

By spending a few pennies wisely you can turn many old articles about the house that are useless to you into ready cash. Others are glad to get them, and a market is all that is needed to turn them into something useful to you.

On the other hand, by following our classified columns from week to week, you can pick up things that you can use---and can buy them for less than you would ordinarily pay.

Our Classified Columns offer you a double service by making it possible for you to MAKE money by SELLING thru them---and to SAVE money by SHOPPING thru them.

SOCIAL AND ORGANIZATION ACTIVITIES

"Premiers" Organize Athletic Club

The Premiers, a club of boys, plan to hold their meetings in the basement at the home of John Lackner, 7938 Justine st. The club was formed by twelve boys from Auburn Highlands, and is progressing well. The boys play basketball and also have a bowling team.

The officers are as follows: President, John Lackner; vice-president, Carl Wright; treasurer and secretary, Walter Kuh.

Bunco Club Meets

The Jolly Nine bunco club was entertained last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Smyth, 5907 Racine ave. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Della Hammerschmidt, 5837 Morgan st.; Mrs. Charles Ott, 5839 Morgan st., and Mrs. D. Drogan, 5731 Halsted st. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. F. Smith, 1638 W. 57th st., on Wednesday, December 17.

Party for Orphans

Orphans from the Protestant Children's home, 63rd st. and Yale ave., will be entertained at a Christmas party given by the Auburn Court No. 69, Tribe of Ben Hur, in Anderson's hall, 69th and Halsted sts., on Wednesday evening, December 17, at 8 o'clock.

There will be a Christmas tree, and a Santa Claus who will give filled stockings to all, and other gifts for the orphan children. All children of members are invited to the party. General arrangements are in charge of Mrs. H. Schulte, 40 W. 70th pl.

Neighborhood Club

Christmas carols sung by a quintet and a talk, "There Is No Music Like Christmas Music," by Albert Cotsworth, will be the program for the 2 o'clock meeting Thursday afternoon of the Neighborhood House Woman's club. At 11 o'clock in the morning Mrs. Anna Spruner will talk on "The Cardinal Principles of Secondary Education." For the benefit of the chorus, members of that group will hold a bakery sale.

The club's annual Christmas party for children of members will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, December 30, at the Ogden Park field house. Mrs. Margaret Gallagher is chairman of arrangements.

There will be no regular club meeting Christmas week.

St. Sabina's Circle Initiates

St. Sabina's Circle, Daughters of Isabella, held initiation Sunday, December 7, at the Cooper-Carlton hotel. The initiation was followed by a testimonial dinner for the past officers.

Mrs. Mabel Abraham, state deputy of Illinois, and Miss Madalyn Doherty, district deputy, were guests of honor and both were presented with stationery bearing their monograms.

Mrs. Sydney Dillon, Regent of St. Sabina's circle, was presented with a handbag and a fitted traveling case as tokens of appreciation for her work during the past year.

Each of the past officers was presented with a gold bracelet.

The program was furnished by the following: Miss Clarabelle Riha, Mrs. Eva Ellis Miller, Miss Catherine Wall, Miss Ann Bradshaw, Miss Virginia Piper and Mrs. Maude Wilkinson. The music was furnished through the courtesy of Grimpe's orchestra.

Mrs. Marge Rohrer was chairman of affairs, assisted by Miss Catherine Scanlon, Miss Marie Colfer, Miss Eleanor Rohrer, Miss Mary Burke, Miss Mary O'Neill and the Regent, Mrs. Sydney Dillon.

Entertains Club Members

The "Social Club" was entertained Friday, December 12, at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. A. C. Smith, 7422 Parnell ave.

Christmas Parties

Both the December 22 and 29 meetings of the Englewood Woman's club will be dispensed with because of the holiday season. Instead of the regular weekly programs two Christmas parties will be held Tuesday, December 30. At 2 o'clock an entertainment for the children of members will be given at the Englewood Masonic temple, 6730 Wentworth ave., under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edmund Ross Holmes, 6714 Merrill ave. Mrs. William A. McGahen, 6749 Ridgeland ave., will have charge of the junior's party at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Club Luncheon

Mrs. Gilbert M. Bryant, 7139 Eggleston ave., entertained members of the Hamilton Park Social club at 1 o'clock luncheon Friday, December 12. The afternoon was spent in sewing carpet strips to make rugs for the disabled soldiers at the Speedway hospital.

Harvard P. T. A.

A historical pageant, in costume, will be presented by a group of students of the Harvard school before a meeting of the P. T. A. Friday evening. Members of the Harvard Fathers club are invited.

There will be a business meeting at 7:30 o'clock, and the play will begin at 8 o'clock. It is under the direction of Miss Flora Renaud principal of the Harvard school, who is assisted by the teachers.

Mayor at Park Party

With definite assurance that Mayor Dever, Col. A. A. Sprague, County Commissioner Anthony J. Cermak and Warden Michael Zimmer will be in attendance and an extraordinary program of entertainment planned, the Christmas party to be given for tubercular crippled children of the Cook county hospital at Sherman park Tuesday afternoon, December 23, will probably exceed in success any affair ever staged at the park.

Mayor Dever's stay at the park will be a short one, but it will be long enough for him to extend personally the wishes of the season to all the crippled tots that will attend the party. The party will be unique in that the patrons of the park, who, in previous years, have been the recipients of gifts, will be asked to donate some small present for the children, to obtain admittance.

The entertainment will be furnished by the staff of KYW, the Westinghouse radio station, and by the orchestra and entertainers from the Moulin Rouge. A Santa Claus will climb down the chimney that has been built into the park field house and distribute gifts to the crippled children that are able to attend, while the boxes of gifts donated by the audience will be taken back to the hospital to be given to the bedridden patients.

MASONS PLAN NEW TEMPLE ON 87TH ST.

Lot Recently Purchased; New Officers Installed Thursday

Recent purchase of a lot for the erection of a temple for the Gresham lodge, A. F. and A. M., assures the construction of such a building for the community. Six months ago Richard J. Schoulda, 8832 Lowe ave., master of the organization, appointed a committee to secure a satisfactory site. After several meetings the men decided upon the lot, on the south side of 87th st. between Sangamon and Morgan sts., owned by Henry Eden, 8500 Loomis st., as the most suitable of any locations that were available.

Two weeks ago that site, 124x94 feet, was bought by the committee, headed by Herbert S. Rose. Acting with him were Herbert H. Cawley, secretary, Fayette F. Parsons, treasurer, William H. Brinkman, Carl Nyden, William Holmberg, Carl Kramer, Elmer Wilson, Samuel J. Calvin, A. W. Emerson and R. J. Schoulda.

Incorporation will be made within a short time preparatory to placing on sale stock in the proposition. To make the proposition a profitable investment and insure that the building will be self-supporting it is planned to divide the first floor into store rooms. Above that will be the lodge quarters, probably with two stories devoted to club rooms, dance hall and auditorium.

Public installation of officers was held Thursday evening at the lodge's present headquarters at 8673 Vincennes ave. Following the business session, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

Flies To Regain Auditory Powers

Miss Gwendolyn Caswell, deaf since babyhood, hopes to cure affliction through visiting high altitudes.

Retiring Master Schoulda was presented a number of tokens of respect and appreciation. In the absence of Organist Parsons, who was called out of the city, Mrs. H. S. Rose filled his position during the evening.

HEARING IS RESTORED TEMPORARILY DURING FLIGHT IN AIRPLANE

GIRL, DEAF SINCE BABYHOOD, SEEKS CURE THROUGH WEEKLY ASCENTS

Uncle Sam's reserve flying corps has taken upon itself the task of effecting a cure for Miss Gwendolyn Caswell, 8730 Halsted st., who has been deaf since babyhood.

Through the efforts of Lieutenant Herbert L. Kumpfer permission was received from the government to make weekly flights with Miss Caswell as passenger in an attempt to restore her hearing.

With Hurt D. Burley, 1518 Hyde Park blvd., as pilot she made her first ascent Wednesday evening of last week at the Aero club field, 84th st. and Cicero ave. After reaching an altitude of 5,000 feet, the aviator went into a side slip, then rose again before making a nose dive of 1,500 feet. When the passenger indicated the shock had affected her he repeated the performance several times.

After landing Miss Caswell said she had heard the noise of the engine. Later, she was able to hear and describe music played on a phonograph ten feet distant. Thursday morning her auditory powers had practically deserted her, but she hopes through the weekly flights to regain them entirely.

This week Burley plans to treat the girl to a loop-the-loop. Reports of each trip will be made to Washington, showing the results of the experiment.

Following an operation for the removal of adenoids Miss Caswell was told by a London physician that she might regain her hearing through some sudden shock. Learning of this prediction, Walter Kaufman, 3020 Broadway, a friend of the girl, especially interested in her case because his parents were mutes, sought the co-operation of Lieutenant Kumpfer, a business associate.

The young woman, now 23, became entirely deaf at the age of 9 months following a serious attack of measles at her parents' home in London, England. She was educated in an English school for the deaf and, since coming to Chicago twelve years ago, at the Illinois School for the Deaf at Jacksonville. There she learned to be a photographer and for the past three years has been employed in the Gibson-Sykes studio during the winter months and at a Gresham studio in summers.

She is adept at lip reading and prefers to speak rather than use the sign language. Although her words are not distinct enough for strangers to understand, she talks sufficiently articulate for her family and friends to comprehend. Soon she hopes to be able to hear her own voice.

PLAN FORMATION OF COMMUNITY CLUBS FOR LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS

PROMOTER CLAIMS NEED OF OUTLYING DISTRICTS IS "CLEARING HOUSE" FACILITIES

Elaborate plans for the formation of a Greater Chicago Community club, an organization that would have five club houses in different sections of the city to serve as meeting places for local civic and business associations and would co-operate in building up the membership, were outlined to members of the West Englewood Lions' club at their meeting Thursday by C. B. DeWitt, director of civic development of the proposed organization.

That such an association was needed was declared by Mr. DeWitt to be due to the fact that, as a result of growth of outlying business districts, they are without a "clearing house" for their problems. According to the plans, 1,000 members will be admitted to each division of the club in either life, charter or annual memberships.

West Englewood will profit from the great industrial growth of the Calumet district if organizations work together to make a boulevard leading south from the community to Sibley blvd., a drive that will lie west from the new manufacturing center to Western ave., in the opinion of Mr. DeWitt. Executives of new industries will need homes and if they are given convenient means of driving will choose West Englewood.

On the motion of Edward C. Barry a committee was appointed by President William K. Peak to give baskets to the poor of the neighborhood at Christmas time. The committee is composed of Mr. Barry, E. E. Elmore, Rudolph Strauss and the Rev. C. C. Cox. In order that the philanthropic work of the club may not be exploited the committee will co-operate with the United Charities except in cases where it knows that the need is real and the family otherwise would not receive charity.

Warning signs to motorists that the club ordered for erection near schools in West Englewood have been delivered and were shown to the members. Elmore Jordan, Dr. E. V. Perkins, William Wiesehan and Charles Dorigan were appointed on a committee to select the locations for the erection of the signs.

Announcement was made of a dinner to be held on January 14 for the installation of the new officers.

FREE GRADY IN LIQUOR THEFT CONSPIRACY

Lieut. Michael Grady, who for several months has been assigned to Gresham station, was acquitted of the charge of complicity in the Sibley warehouse whiskey theft, in Federal Judge Lindley's court Saturday afternoon.

The lieutenant and his squad were charged with having constituted the guard that removed the whiskey from the Sibley to the Harder warehouse, after bootleggers had forged removal permits to obtain it. Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins testified in behalf of Grady's character. Lieutenant Grady resides in Auburn Park.

He was formerly attached to the detective bureau, but will remain at the local station for the present, Chief Collins stated following the officer's acquittal.

MODEL CADETS RECEIVE BARS AT PARKER HIGH

Ten members of the Parker high school R. O. T. C. received the service bar from Principal Wilbur Wright Wednesday after he had chosen them as model cadets. The boys receiving the honor were Captain Swan, Captain Bay, Lieut. Parkhurst, Lieut. Parker, Sergt. Brunelle, Sergt. Campbell, Sergt. Church, Sergt. Kershaw, Cadet Smith, Cadet Bennett.

The unit at the local school received its annual inspection from Colonel Stillman, Major Beals and Major Moore Monday of last week and was congratulated on the strength of its membership.

Parker's R. O. T. C. unit and that of Calumet high school will stage their annual uniformed military ball at the Hotel Wedgewood January 9.

NEW HOBBY CLUB FOR BOY AND GIRL WBCN FANS TO MEET IN AIR

By George R. Cleveland, the WBCN Hobby Man

WHO SAID LET'S HAVE FUN!

All you boys and girls who are ready for a good time line up at the right!

Nobody needs a ticket!

Everything's free!

Just give the old secret sign and stoop down enough so you won't bump your head when you go through the Cave door. That's all!

And when you're inside the Cave pick out a place in the circle around old Peg Leg's cozy, warm fireplace — there's plenty of room for all of you—and then hold tight because—

We're off for the land of Hobbies and fun!

Sounds like a sideshow barker at the circus, doesn't it boys and girls? It's more than a sideshow, though, it's the whole circus itself! Here's why:

The Southtown Economist and the radio station WBCN today announce the founding of a new club for their school boys and girls, those live-wire young folks who like to do interesting things and like to know about the interesting things other boys and girls are doing.

This new club has been named the WBCN Hobby club

Any boy or any girl who has a hobby—stamp collecting stone collecting, postcard collecting amateur journalism, cartooning, photography, clay modeling, wood carving—is eligible for membership, provided he or she has the opportunity of tuning in WBCN or reading the Southtown Economist.

There's a good reason for those two only membership requirements They are these. The Hobby club holds its meetings by radio from the station WBCN, and the doings of these meetings are then printed in the Hobby club column of the Southtown Economist Therefore, in order to get the benefits to be had from the Hobby club, the members must either be able to attend the radio meetings by listening in or else get the club news in print.

It's easy to join, and it's worth while, for the WBCN Hobby club is the only boys' and girls' organization of its kind in the world. It is the only club for young folks that meets on the air, with its members spread from coast to coast and border to border. No other pleasure organization for school boys and girls can boast the close personal participation that the WBCN Hobby club affords its members. Every member, with his earphones or loud speaker, can hear his fellows tell about their hobbies, their collections can hear their music and, best of all, has the opportunity of broadcasting to the world from the WBCN station, either in person or by having his hobby letters read by the Hobby Man to the thousands of other boys and girls who are eagerly listening in. Think of that! Think of having something you yourself wrote read to a million or more persons, big persons, little persons and middle-sized persons! That's the opportunity the WBCN Hobby club holds out for you.

The WBCN Hobby club meets in the Cave, around Peg Leg's roaring fireplace, every Friday night, at 7.15 o'clock, snow, rain or shine The Cave is the WBCN broadcasting studio at the Southtown Economist, which is transformed every Friday night, while the Hobby club meets, into a cozy cavern. Old Peg Leg is the imaginary custodian of the Cave fireplace He keeps fresh logs in the Cave for every meeting and sees to it that when the Hobby Man says 'All right, boys and girls, let's go for tonight's Hobby club meeting," there's a good cheery fire burning away to throw long fingers of light around the Cave. Peg Leg used to be a sailor and roved the seas for years and he has a thousand stories of adventures up his sleeve that the Hobby Man may be able to persuade him to tell He's a good, jolly fellow with a great broad smile, and all you boys and girls will like him immensely

But while Peg Leg may be imaginary, the circle of boys and girls that sit around his fireplace every Friday night is very much real. It is just as real as the throngs of boys and girls the country over who sit at their radio sets and listen in to the "doings"

Every meeting of the WBCN Hobby club will be worth while listening to First there will be discussions about all sorts of hobbies that interest boys and girls. Some of these talks will be by members of the club themselves, and some by older folks who are hobby experts. Then, secondly, there will be read by the Hobby Man the most interesting letters he has received during the week from the club members. And thirdly, there will be a musical program furnished by young people—perhaps a high school orchestra or a Boy Scout glee club or some Hobby club member alone who plays or sings. Everything throughout the meeting is of, by and for boys and girls, the members of the club. Think of the fun of belonging to an organization like this! Mere membership and attendance at the meetings is a hobby in itself, it is so much fun. Take it straight from old Peg Leg—and he knows, because he's been around—you'll be missing some good things if you don't join and listen in with all the other boys and girls.

The first meeting of the Hobby club will be held Friday night, December 19, at 7:15, as a part of the WBCN Fireside Hour program.

The Hobby club man will explain the club then, and the first discussion and the first musical program will go 'on the air,' as they say at the radio station.

You'll want to join before that first meeting, so that the Hobby Man can read your name and address by radio to the boys and girls who are listening in.

So on this page you'll find a blank to be filled out as your membership application. Print in your name, address, age and the hobby you are especially interested in, and mail it today to the Hobby Man, WBCN, at the Southtown Economist, 730 W. 65th st, Chicago. Your application enrolls you in the club and your name is duly filed on the membership list.

Write a letter to the Hobby Man about your hobby and send it with your application. The best of these letters will be read at the club meetings as soon as possible

Then, on Friday night, be sure your receivers are tuned in for WBCN by 7 o'clock at least so you don't miss the opening of the first meeting of the International Radio Hobby club for boys and girls. Peg Leg says if you miss anything you miss a lot And he knows!

Let's go!

SCOUTS GIVEN BADGES AT COURT OF HONOR BY GENERAL STEWART

RICHARD JACKSON OF HAMILTON PARK EARNS EAGLE AWARD; 640 BOYS SEE FILM

Scouts of this vicinity were represented at the Southwest district public court of honor attended by 640 boys Friday evening in the Hamilton park held house. Badges were presented by General Leroy T. Stewart, scout commissioner of Chicago. Richard Jackson of Troop 646, Hamilton Park community, was the sole recipient of an eagle badge.

Jack O'Hare of the same troop was awarded a badge for athletic merit. Badges were given to James Graham for scholarship merit and Merrill Rothwell, for civics. Both boys belong to Troop 640, Hamilton Park.

Three boys of Troop 630 awarded badges for carpentry were James Fry, Arthur Minton and Charles Schenck. Cedric Hilbron was given a badge for athletics and Paul Crain was awarded one for electricity. They are also of that troop. Another scout from Englewood community given a badge was John Detrich of Troop 6110, for scholarship merit.

The program included orchestra selections, the singing of "America," a brief talk by General Stewart, a moving picture, "Gee, It's Great To Be a Scout," and the Scout benediction.

Deputy Scout commissioners on the recently revised roster of the Southwest district are F. B. Frizell, 2338 W. 111th pl., and O. R. Benson, 10720 Church st, whose territory includes 107th to 119th st., State st. to California ave.; R. M. Bennett, 9060 Pleasant ave., and H. V.
